Dr. F. H. Evans Is Specialist At New Clinic

DR. FREDERICK H. EVANS.

Medical Associates Clinic, 2140 N. Capitol, this week announced an addition to its professional staff.

Dr. Frederick H. Evans, having completed three years of study of disorders of the ear, nose and throat at General Hospital and the Indiana University Medical Center, will begin the practice of his specialty in the modern, new clinic.

He formerly practiced general medicine here for eight years.

A graduate of Fisk University and Meharry Medical College, Dr. Evans took his internship at Freedmen's hospital in Washington.

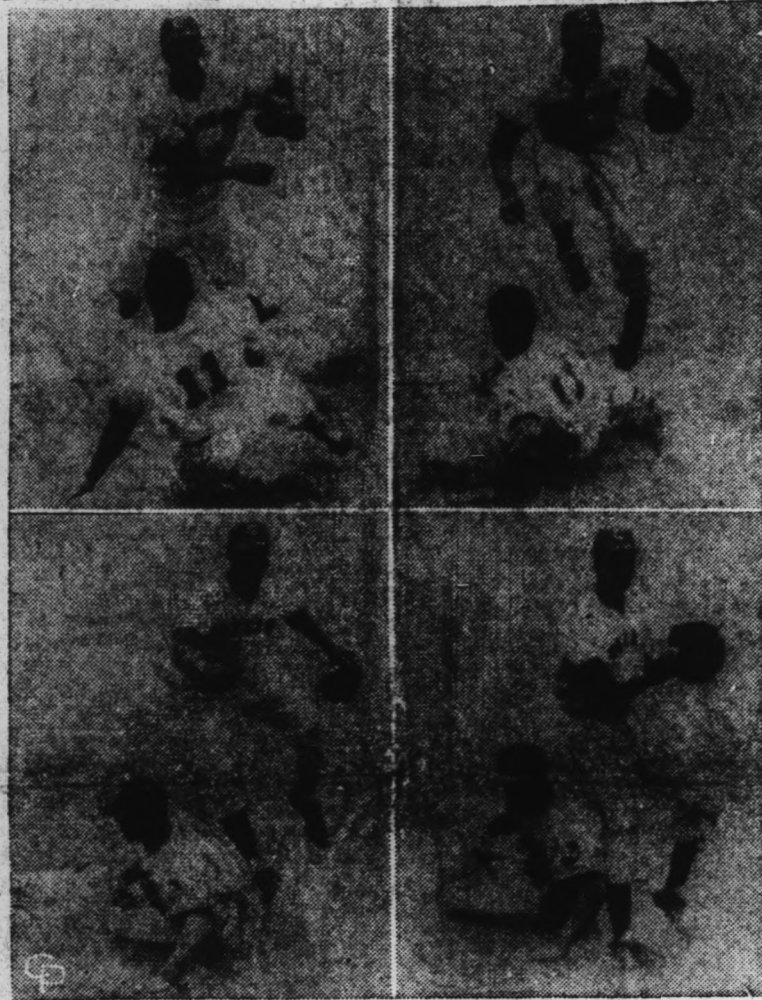

He took post-graduate courses at Columbia and Harvard universities. In 1952, he entered the Armed Forces and served in Korea where he earned the Bronze Star. Following the Korean conflict, Dr. Evans was transferred to Camp Fuji, Japan, as post surgeon.

Married, the young specialist has two sons, Freddy, 15, and Noel, 10. Mrs. Evans is a probation officer at the Marion County Juvenile Center.

Dr. Robert W. Briggs is chairman of the Clinic Building Corporation which owns the attractive two-story building where the clinic is housed. Other corporation members are Drs. Ralph Hanley, secretary-treasurer; Lehman D. Adams, Louis H. Maxey and Evans.

ALL-STAR ACTION: Giants' Willie Mays (above), first batter in the 25th annual All-Star baseball game at Baltimore on Tuesday, scored a run on Hank Aaron's long sacrifice fly to Mickey Mantle. But the Nationals' quick lead didn't stand up as the American won 4-3 before a crowd of 48,829 fans. In picture sequence at right, Cubs' shortstop Ernie Banks is shown putting out Gus Triandos of Baltimore on a force play at second base in the 2nd inning. Hoosier George Crowe, available as pinchhitter, wasn't used. Stories are on Page 11. (Central Press Photos)

Negro Railroaders May Face Million-Dollar-a-Day Pay Loss

An approximate $1 million daily payroll earned by Negro railroaders is in danger as the railroad industry struggles with gross inequities, loss of passenger traffic and increased operating expenditures according to the Association of American Railroaders in a statement this week.

This payroll represents the largest single contribution to the $15 billion annual income of the Negro national community.

The most important transportation legislation in 18 years, and perhaps the most significant to both public convenience and national economy, is pending in Congress in response to the danger signals flashing over the nation's railroads.

Overall employment on railroads, for instance, has dropped sharply. The number of employees in April, 1958 — 829,819 — was the smallest reported for any month since 1921 and represents a decline of more than half a million workers under the postwar high of 1.4 million in 1946.

Engaged in a number of operations and services vital to railroads, Negro employees have a clear concern with the problems facing the industry which create a drastic need for the reduction of its labor force and curtailment of various other functions.

UNDER RESTRICTIONS which prevent them from discontinuing deficit-producing operations, the railroads have been left little alternative for survival but to cut costs where they can in employment, improvements and purchasing, the statement said.

While recent action in Congress will undoubtedly offer some measure of relief for the railroads, observers point out, important provisions affecting some phases of discontinuing unprofitable rail service and facilities and a section establishing tax-free reserves of construction funds were eliminated.

Railroad officials have voiced the hope that these items may be subject to favorable future action.

By WILLA THOMAS

TORONTO, Canada — "Toronto is the only place I have ever been where people simply don't seem to notice I am a Negro. Previously, I've met people who've ignored me or have been rude or even too effusive. But here color just doesn't seem to count one way or the other."

Speaking was a poised, intelligent young third-year college student in speech therapy, Gloria Trammel, a Texan, was one of the 8,000 young people, white and Negro, European, African, Canadian, Asian, from the United States and 61 other countries, attending the fifth Baptist Youth Conference of the World meeting here last week.

Friday, a group of Southern Negro and white, joined in a frank discussion of race relations. All agreed on one point: The younger generation does not feel as strongly about race as their parents do in many cases.

One leader was nervous about publicity being given the racial aspects of the Toronto conference. "There has been absolutely no difficulty of any sort, no tension or embarrassment. But if newspapers stress it, make an issue of it, it may arouse quite unnecessary fears and emotions in some hometowns," he cautioned.

But Dr. Theodore F. Adams, president of the Baptist World Alliance, said unequivocally, "The Baptist World Alliance recognizes no barriers of race or color. Our congress and youth conference have always been on an interracial basis."

"We wouldn't go anywhere where we met such barriers," he went on. "Remember, too, that although racial stresses are intensified in the South, discrimination of one form or another happens all over the world, between races and colors and even within races."

Handsome and distinguished, Dr. Adams is himself a Southerner from Richmond, Va., and a former Indiana resident.

EVEN THE SOUTHERN Baptist church, often believed to be a stronghold of segregationist feeling, is unobtrusively pursuing an integration policy in some fields. There are a few Negro churches who are members of Southern Baptist conventions.

Negro students able to reach required academic standards are now accepted by three of the largest Baptist seminaries in the world, all in the Deep South, according to Rev. Arnold T. Ohn, secretary of the BWA.

"In America when anything happens, everyone knows about it," Rev. Ohn observed. "When things go wrong, they always make the headlines. When they go right, a little item on page 4, maybe."

Taking part in the discussion were Miss Trammel, Rev. A. A. Banks, pastor of a Detroit church; Rev. Len Allen, pastor of a church at Franklin, Va.; Rev. Tom Logue of Little Rock, director of Baptist student work in Arkansas; Grover Andrews, public relations director at Baylor University, Waco, Tex.

Two Shootings, Two Stabbings Steal Spotlight

While most of Indianapolis picnicked, enjoyed parties and outings or just relaxed, violence erupted in several parts of the city to spoil the July 4th weekend. At least five Negroes were in General Hospital this week as tempers flared, blood flowed and the "slaughter season" began.

An argument over a parking space led to the July 4 shooting of Frank Sharp, 33, 1053 W. 34 h. as two shootings, two stabbings and a beating served notice to the citizenry that the violence which traditionally accompanies rising temperatures is here again.

According to witnesses, Sharp was properly parked in the 900 block of Edgemoor, about 10 Friday morning, talking with two friends when a taxi, operated by a man believed to be Calvin Randall, 30, 951 Edgemoor, came up and bumped into Spark's car.

Randall then got out of the cab, police were told, and when an argument started, went into his house, got a snub-nosed pistol and returned to the scene. The cab driver reportedly yelled to Sharp.

Owes Life to Old Car Which Halted Blast

By GEORGE P. STEWART II

A "rookie cop" appointed to the force only six months ago, in all probability owes his life this week to the door of an old-model car.

The door of the automobile blast from a 12-gauge shotgun deflected the main force of a fired by a 43-year-old Westsider lying in the rear seat of the car at point-blank range of two officers making a routine investigation.

Only a few of the pellets from the deadly shotgun struck the policeman, inflicting minor injury to the right side of his chest and hand.

In an exclusive interview with The Recorder, Patrolman Colton Chaney, 1525 N. Hamilton, partner of the injured policeman, Patrolman John Morris, 27, 1414 W. 32nd, said he, Morris and Patrolman Earl Martin were radioed to 1026 W. Walnut about 12:15 a.m. Wednesday to check a report of a prowler.

Patrolman Chaney said that when they arrived at the address, they talked to a woman who had been drinking heavily. Her speech was so incoherent, they couldn't understand her.

Examination Clears Officer In 'Rape' Case

Rape charges against Special Policeman Ernest Kirk were dropped Thursday morning after a doctor's examination revealed his 12-year-old accused was still a virgin.

The girl, previously held as an incorrigible, was brought to Juvenile Aid Division after she reportedly chased her mother with a knife.

H. Dale Brown is GOP Choice for Assessor

H. Dale Brown, Marion County clerk and 11th District Republican chairman, was appointed as the Republican candidate for the office of Marion County Assessor in the November election. Frank J. Unversaw, Marion County Republican chairman, announced this week. The vacancy was created by the recent death of the nominee, Victor R. Jose.

Unversaw made the appointment under the authority given him at the Marion County convention in May, when he was re-elected Republican County chairman.

Brown, completing his second elective term as county clerk, resides with his wife, Mary, and their two children, Judith Ann, 15, and H. Dale Jr., 16, a sophomore at the University of Wisconsin, at 2613 E. 58th.

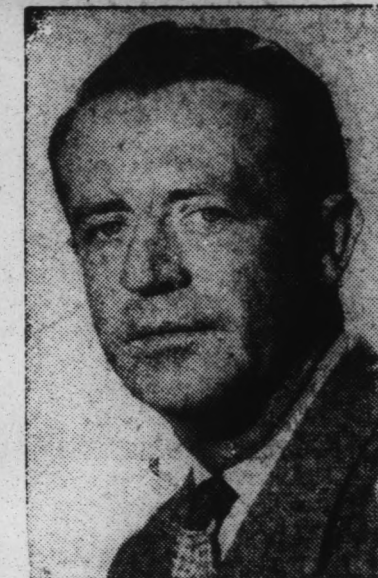

In May Brown was elected to a third term as 11th District Republican chairman. He was elected in 1954, and in 1956, also having served as precinct committeeman and ward chairman.

Active in Republican politics, he received his first political appointment in August, 1941 as superintendent of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, and in September of 1944 Ruel Alexander appointed him assistant director of that bureau. The following April, Governor Ralph F. Gates appointed him commissioner of the bureau. He remained in that position until the Democrats took over in December, 1948.

Dale Brown was the Republican candidate for state treasurer in 1948 and led the ticket by 9,000 votes.

Active in working with the Marion County legislative delegation, Brown is responsible for much of the work of the delegation.

She Put Sugar In His Gasoline

Sally because his sweetheart allegedly put sugar in his gasoline Saturday — after their love soared — Alphonso Crockett, 38, 418 Smith, bitterly took the matter to police headquarters.

Smith said his girlfriend, Mildred E. Greene, 47, 1136 N. Senate, had "got mad" at him and started sweetening his gasoline. Police found a funnel with sugar in it still in the gas spout. An open five-pound bag of sugar was near the car and an empty two-pound carton on the ground.

Smith, who apparently has no stomach for high-octane tea, was advised by police to swear out a warrant for his sweetheart's arrest.

Nettie S. King 1,000th with Life Membership

CLEVELAND — Mrs. Nettie Scott King, prominent mortician of Indianapolis, was a "woman of the hour" here Wednesday at the Life Membership Luncheon of the NAACP's National Convention.

By virtue of being the 1,000th person in the U.S. to take out a paid-up $500 life membership in the organization, Mrs. King was given the red-carpet treatment.

She was met at the airport by Kivie Kaplan, co-chairman of the national life membership committee, and Miss Mildred Bond, life membership secretary. She was presented more orchids than she could wear.

And finally she was the guest of honor at the luncheon at the

Terre Haute Woman Gets NAACP Office

CLEVELAND (Special) — Mrs. Daisy Hood of Terre Haute was elected secretary of Region 1, comprising the Midwestern states, at the NAACP national convention here this week.

The Indianapolis branch was slated to receive an honorable mention award for outstanding Freedom Fund and Life Membership work, at a dinner Thursday night.

Rev. Ford Gibson, Indianapolis president, was scheduled to give the invocation for Friday's general session.

Hotel Hollenden, attended by several hundred delegates and NAACP workers.

MRS. KING, who heads the King & King Funeral Home in Indianapolis, was the only speaker at the luncheon who was not a national board member or officer.

"I was inspired to take a life membership by a letter from Atty. and Mrs. Henry J. Richardson, Jr., co-chairmen of our campaign in Indianapolis," she told the gathering. "I have also noticed the good work in Indianapolis under the dynamic leadership of our branch president, Rev. Ford Gibson."

"Now I'm going back and sell half-a-dozen life memberships to support the work of this great organization."

Mr. Kaplan, presiding at the luncheon, observed that Indiana is "on the ball" and the Indianapolis branch has "come to life" in the membership effort. He also lauded other cities, including Louisville, Ky., which has 50 life members.

INDIANAPOLIS persons present as the convention began included Rev. Gibson, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Virgie Davis, Mrs. Ollie Weeks and Miss Lillian Naomi Wortham, all delegates; Robert Williams, youth director; and several youth delegates; Miles Loyd, Mrs. Rosemary Carpenter, Mrs. Dorothy Whiteside, Earle Barnette and others.

Northsider 'Fair' With Serious Burns

A 56-year-old Northside man, Ralph Davis, was in fair condition in General Hospital Wednesday after he suffered second-degree burns to his right hand while trying to put out a fire in his home, 241 W. 32nd, last Saturday.

Firemen called to Davis' home early Saturday morning said the fire was confined to a front bedroom. The cause of the blaze was undetermined.

Three-Block Chase Ends with Youth's Capture

Captured after a three-block chase during which four shots were fired, 18-year-old Julius Dobbins, 1116 N. Capitol, Apt. B, was booked early last Friday morning on four counts.

Policewoman Marie Legg said she was home in her apartment at 1220 N. Illinois when she heard a loud party in progress in Apt. 310. Going over to investigate, she opened the door, saw Dobbins in the hallway and asked him to quiet down.

At that, Dobbins struck at her with his fist and when she drew back, he proceeded to grab her clothing, Officer Legg said. "I showed him my badge and told him he was under arrest," she went on. "Then he threw a bottle at me, inflicting a small wound on my right ring finger."

The policewoman said she ran back to her apartment to get her gun, and Dobbins ran down the steps and headed for Capitol. As he crossed Muskingum, the officer fired a shot.

Police in a squad car, hearing the shot, joined in the chase and apprehended the youth just as he got home.

Charged with being drunk, disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and assault and battery, Dobbins was fined $25 and sentenced to 20 days in jail.

'Learns Lesson' After Swimming In Reservoir

Swimming in unguarded waters proved costly to 14-year-old Joseph Jackson last Saturday.

The lad, who lives at 2057 N. Senate, was with a group of friends at the Power and Light Co. reservoir, near Allfree, when he attempted to execute a fancy dive over the head of a friend.

Joseph lost his footing and plunged against some steel pilings in the reservoir, inflicting a deep gash in his left thigh and injuring his right arm. He was to have been released from General Hospital Thursday.

Joe's 17-year-old brother, John, said he and three or four other boys went swimming at the reservoir at the time.

The 17-year-old said there are no warning signs of any kind at the reservoir and that kids often go swimming there.

Crime Rate

according to the records there, Negro boys and girls do commit more acts of delinquency than whites. And I don't doubt these figures are accurate, because the reports from Juvenile Court, individual arresting officers and JAD headquarters all have to balance with each other."

According to Officer Sansbury, vehicle-taking leads the list of offenses by teenagers, followed by robbery, burglary and sex offenses, in that order.

While there has been a decrease in recent months in the total number of arrests, the number of arrests for sex crimes appears to be on the increase, she said.

HER WORK, she said, is limited to law enforcement and, as a result she doesn't get to follow case histories. Just what the contributing factors to delinquency may be, she felt she wasn't in a position to say.

Ramsey felt, for a number of reasons, that crime statistics are distorted. "There does not exist," he charged, "any uniform definition of crime. By that I mean that in certain communities, the same act may be considered a crime at one time or under one set of circumstances and not in others.

"I recall a case in Louisiana where a Negro and a white man were both caught in a chicken house and arrested. The white man was charged with stealing chickens, a misdemeanor; the Negro was charged with breaking and entering, a felony.

"A white man arrested on sex charges may often be prosecuted for a lesser crime. A Negro arrested on any sex charge involving a white woman is almost invariably prosecuted for rape.

"I don't believe Negroes are biologically more prone to crime than whites. That Negroes are culturally more criminal may be true, but has not been proven."

Stewart immediately challenged Ramsey's position.

"We've got to stop running from facts and statistics and glossing over them," he said. "We've got to accept the fact, for example, that 63 percent of all murders, aggravated assaults and robberies are committed by Negroes — and try to do something about it.

"I won't attempt to isolate any one factor as the reason for Negro crime. There are any number of reasons, the economic situation being one of them.

Activities permitted in neighborhoods, I believe, are a very definite factor in the total crime picture. Teenagers can be seen gambling on street corners in even our best neighborhoods."

"CITIZENS, CHURCHES and schools all have the responsibility to make the community aware of its responsibility to itself," he challenged. "Negro newspapers have played down the statistics or tried to apologize for them. We've simply got to face the facts and try to correct the situation.

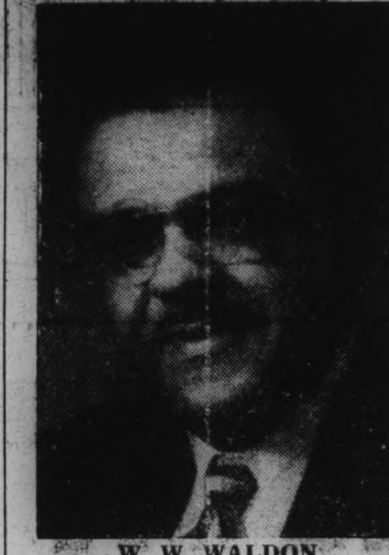

"When you consider that Indianapolis Negroes — 15 percent of the total population — consume 50 percent of all the liquor sold here you begin to see something of the problem."

Ramsey agreed that individual citizens have a responsibility in the situation, but in the main he feels it to be the job of what he called a "socio-engineer."

"Negroes accustomed to 'Southern justice' come here thinking the dice are loaded against them. Many Negro boys and girls never grow out of that attitude. As a result, they develop little respect for law.

"The Negro middle class is apparently less criminal than its white counterpart. Negroes commit fewer 'white collar' crimes — embezzlement, etc. — primarily because they are not in the position

Masons Observe Sts. John Day

W. W. WALDON

KOKOMO — Indiana Masons recently celebrated for the first time Sts. John Day in what was termed "the largest and most inspiring assemblage of the craft ever held for this purpose in the history of the district."

Given special honor by the host Keys one Lodge No. 40 was Most Worshipful Grand Master W. W. Waldon of Kokomo.

The services were held at Second Baptist Church, with the sermon delivered by Rev. J. W. Carr, pastor. He spoke on "Let Your Light So Shine Before Men."

Preceding the sermon, Fred Prestwood of St. Mary's Lodge, Fort Wayne, explained why Masons should give honor to the Saints John.

Outgoing Past District Deputy Grand Master Charles F. Williams was presented with an apron by District Deputy Grand Master Joseph F. Moore of St. Mary's Lodge. Visitors to the first of what is hoped will be an annual observance included a large delegation from St. Mary's Lodge and members of the Eastern Star, Grand Trustee Von Casey and members of Wilson Lodge, Marion; a group from Floyd Lodge, Lafayette; Mrs. Adele Starks, past grand matron of the Eastern Star, and Mrs. Marjorie D. Wickliffe, grand treasurer, Fort Wayne.

Charles Grimes, grand lecturer of Keystone Lodge, closed the services with a poem.

to commit them.

"If you'd compare whites in the lowest social strata with Negroes in the lowest strata, the statistics would probably even out."

"But until we get rid of the breeding places of crime, be they slum neighborhoods or simply attitudes," Ramsey concluded, "we'll have these ugly statistics staring us in the face."

understand what she was trying to say, he stated.

The officer said they told the woman they would return later "when she was able to talk" and left the house.

According to Officer Chaney, about 1:15 a.m. they received a second radio call to the address, this time on the report of "rowdy drunks in the rear."

CRUISING THROUGH THE ALLEY at the rear of the house, Chaney said, they saw four or five elderly men sitting in the rear of a neighboring house, but none of the men seemed to be intoxicated. He said they noticed a car parked in the yard at rear of the complainant's house.

"We decided to check the car," Chaney said, "and Morris and I got out of the squad car and walked into the yard."

Chaney said he threw his light in the parked automobile. Noticing a man lying prone in the back, Chaney said, he turned to Morris and said, "There is a man in that car."

He said they stepped back and had just started to open the door of the car when the man inside, identified as Charles Hall of the Walnut street address, cut loose with a blast from the shotgun.

THE OFFICERS FELL to the ground and Chaney said he heard Morris say, "I'm hit."

"When I asked him if he was hit bad," Chaney said, "Morris answered that he didn't think so, and I told him to stay there while I crawled around to the other side of the car and we could keep him from getting out of the car."

Martin, still in the prowl car, got out but couldn't fire because of the darkness he didn't know where his fellow officers were.

Chaney said they returned the man's fire, and he fired another blast with the five shot Winchester pump.

He said they yelled, "We're police officers. Come out with your hands up," and Hall said he would come out if they wouldn't shoot.

They told him to throw the gun out the window and come out of the car. Hall threw the gun out and came out of the car just as reinforcements called by Martin began to arrive.

HE WAS ARRESTED and charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, resisting arrest and shooting in the city limits. Held in the Marion County Jail under $7,500 bond, he was scheduled to answer the charges in Municipal Court Thursday.

Hall claimed he didn't know the men were police officers, that someone had stolen the radio out of his car, a 1949 Chrysler, two weeks ago and that he had been "laying for" the thief since then.

BOUND FOR CLEVELAND: Members of the NAACP Youth Council prepared Sunday to leave for Cleveland, where the national NAACP convention is in session July 8-13. Among local youth learning of the inter-workings of the national organization are Patricia Williams, Dorothy Bacon, Norma Robinson, Carole Stevenson, Robert

Violence Marks

"Drop that knife," then shot him. Sharp's companions, Clarence Johnson, 25, 338 N. West, and Eugene Davis, 28, 949 Edgemont, both told police officers that Sharp hadn't drawn a knife.

After the shooting, witnesses reported, Randall went back into the house and told his common-law wife, Teresa Riley, 26, that he had just shot a man.

Some 10 minutes later, a JAD car located the taxi abandoned in the 1200 block of Edgemont. Randall was still being sought by police. Sharp is in General Hospital, where his condition was listed Wednesday as fair.

DAVID LYONS, 32, 1812 Broadway, told police he was at the home of Mrs. Emma Thompson, 34, 1444 E. 17th, shortly after midnight Thursday, and while he was talking to Mrs. Thompson and Ike J. Humphrey, 111 1/2 Bellefontaine, a car drove slowly through the alley south from 18th and, as it approached the Thompson home, the driver fired three shots.

Lyons said he ran across the street and the man, later identified as Earl Martin, 42, 1310 Roosevelt, fired again, striking Lyons in the right thigh.

Martin, arrested about 9 Friday morning at 1526 Arsenal, was charged with assault and battery with intent to murder.

NATHAN WILLIAMS, 35, 1973 Hillside, Apt. 3, was advised by police to swear out a warrant for the arrest of his girlfriend, Geneva Kinchlow, 26, 2535 James, after she reportedly stabbed him with a paring knife, Saturday morning.

Williams was taken to General Hospital with a collapsed left lung.

POLICE OFFICERS summoned to 622 Fayette, early Saturday evening, found James D. Duff, 615 W. Vermont, lying in the mud, bleeding badly from a stab wound in his left chest. An open pocket knife lay beside him.

Duff was unable to talk and neighbors apparently knew nothing, but police, acting on a tip, learned that the injured man had been in a fight at the Fayette location with James Ray, 38, 902 Lynn.

During the fight, he allegedly was knifed by MBargaret "Mutt" Hunt, 42-year-old sister-in-law of Ray.

When they arrived at the Lynn address, police found Ray, Mrs. Hunt and Ray's wife, Katherine. All three of whom denied any knowledge of the stabbing. Mrs. Ray, however, had fresh blood stains on the back of her dress, the officers said.

And when Ray's mother-in-law admitted hearing her daughters discuss the incident prior to the officers' arrival, Ray, his wife and his sister-in-law were arrested on charges of assault and battery with intent to murder.

TWENTY-YEAR-OLD John Douglas of 1555 Carrollton was in fair condition at General Hospital Wednesday, his nose broken in two places by a man who said young Douglas had spit in his face. The victim, who denied ever having seen his assailant before, said he was at 1521 Cornell when a man, believed to be John Warner, 35-40, 2950 Spruce, came in and said Douglas spit in his face.

The older man then kicked Douglas about the face and body, fracturing his nose.

a butcher knife and broke several pieces of furniture during a tantrum.

While she was at police headquarters, she told authorities she had had relations with Kirk on several occasions, most recently in May, 1958.

Det. Sgt. Myron Parlow said after he heard the girl's statement, he had no choice but to arrest Kirk on a preliminary rape charge. He didn't know at the time that she had previously been held for a mental examination.

Parlow said the girl stuck to her story — even in Kirk's presence — despite his vehement denial of the charges and his willingness to take a lie detector test.

THE PRELIMINARY CHARGE expired Thursday morning, and Sgt. Parlow had the choice of releasing the accused or reslating him.

"When I got Dr. Paul Desjean's report that the girl had been examined and found intact, I didn't see any point in trying to hold Kirk," the officer said.

"It's unfortunate that a grown man should be caused a lot of embarrassment and trouble because of the girl's irresponsible statement, but when the charges were made we had to conduct an investigation."

"It appears now that the whole thing was a figment of the girl's imagination," Parlow said.

Kirk, presumably, will be reinstated as a special policeman without reprisal by the Safety Board.

UNION OFFICERS REGISTER: Pictured as they registered Sunday for the United Steelworkers of America, District 30, summer educational institute at Indiana University are four of the more than 200 union leaders participating in the 12th annual week-long session. They are Theodore C. Boyd, 1300 W. 25th, trustee; Robert L. Satterfield, 1638 E. Naomi, president, and Nathaniel Gardner, 1308 N. Missouri, guard, all of Local 4266, and Richard Johnson, recording secretary of Local 1800. Purpose of the program is to train local union officers in providing more efficient service to members and to the communities in which they live.

July Fourth Escape Attempt Sends Young Man to Hospital

Felled by police bullets in a July 4 escape attempt, James Stratton, alias James Walker, was in critical condition in General hospital Wednesday. The 26-year-old victim had been the object of a police hunt since his escape from the prisoners' cage while awaiting trial on a burglary and larceny charges a month ago.

Sgt. R. A. Jones said he was near 34th and Clifton last Friday when he saw a yellow '49 Mercury pull up to a four-way stop.

"Recognizing the driver as James Stratton, wanted as an escapee," Jones related, "I followed the car east on 34th to the alley west of Northwestern. The car turned north and tried to hide in the rear of a building there."

"They (Stratton and an unidentified companion) turned around and started south in the alley until they saw me. Then they backed the car up at a high rate of speed, crashed into a tree and wrecked the car." The man with Stratton escaped through a window, Sgt. Jones said, and the driver ran west in the alley north of 34th. "I yelled several times for him to stop and fired one shot in the air."

BUT STRATTON reportedly continued running west in the alley almost to Rader, where he turned and ran between some houses and crossed 34th.

"I saw him in the rear of 954 W. 33rd in front of an empty garage with a big piece of wood over his head," Jones went on. "I told him to drop it and he swung at me and I dropped to the ground, injuring my left hand."

"As I fell, he ran and I fired one shot, hitting him in the left side. I handcuffed him and asked someone to call for an ambulance and assistance. Car 19 came to help. Stratton was taken to General hospital under arrest for escaping jail and resisting arrest."

About 2 the morning of June 5, police officers became suspicious of two men walking north in the 600 block of N. Capitol with two typewriters. Investigating, they found Carl Kellebrew, 26, 1652 Sheldon, with the two machines he said he had found in the rear of 708 N. Capitol.

JAMES WALKER, later identified as Stratton, who was with Kellebrew, was carrying a brown leather suitcase which police said belonged to a Lonnie Westfield. Contacted by police, Westfield said he had let "Walker" use the case.

Kellebrew and "Walker" were arrested on preliminary charges of burglary and grand larceny. The next day, June 6, when they were to appear in Municipal Court Room 4 to answer the charges, "Walker" failed to appear when his name was called. A search of the prisoners' cage revealed "Walker" had walked.

A fingerprint check later showed the escapee to be James Stratton, whose last known address was 1234 W. 33rd.

Willa Thomas Now Reports for Baptist World Publication

Miss Willa Thomas, church columnist for The Recorder, has been named reporter for "Our World," official publication of the Baptist World Alliance, comprising 22 million Baptists.

Also on the staff of the National Baptist Union Review, Miss Thomas will report on the work of the National Baptist Convention of America and the National Baptist Sunday School Congress. For the past three months, she has edited a column in the Review called "Baptist World Alliance News," for which she was commended by C. Bryant, editor of "Our World," during the recent world conference in Toronto, Canada. She was the only Negro press representative at the Toronto meeting.

Pat O'Brien to Be at Avondale

PAT O'BRIEN

Pat O'Brien, one of Hollywood's foremost stars, will appear in the Albert Husson play, "My Three Angels," at Avondale Playhouse In-The-Meadows Tuesday through Sunday, July 15-20.

Famous for his work in radio, television, movies and theatre, Mr. O'Brien is probably best known for his roles in biographical movies such as "Father Duffy" in "The Fighting 89th," "Knots Rockne" in "Knots Rockne Story," "Father Duane" in "Fighting Father Duane," Frank Cavanaugh in "The Iron Major," and Col. Patty Ryan in "Bombardier."

Playing every type character from gangster to priest, Mr. O'Brien has over a hundred credits behind his name. He recently did a night club act and a cross country tour of "Strike A Match" with Eva Gabor, demonstrating his wide talent.

One of Broadway's ten best in 1933, "My Three Angels" was made into a hilarious movie with Humphrey Bogart, Aldo Ray and Peter Ustinov. The play, proving crime can be beautiful, tells of three rogues who are not "bad men" at heart in spite of their crimes against society.

Serving You Better . . . Saving You More

Social Scene . . . .

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Well, dear readers (all six of you—counting the family), you have disappointed me! One would have thought that after an absence of a couple of weeks, fabulous people would have stormed The Recorder doors by the thousands, demanding to know what had happened to "The Social Scene" and giving its writer cause to demand a triple raise.

But since no one has apparently noticed the absence of this most brilliant of all columns, my sense of personal security demands that I write one this week so that biggest boss of all cannot discover that Indiana's Greatest Weekly CAN exist without "Social Scene." . . . Although I still don't believe it!

Actually, after a rather pleasant week, I feel compelled to write a column, if for no other reason than to tell a couple of hostesses what wonderful ones they are.

Making the Fourth of July a pleasant day for a select group of guests, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Page entertained delightfully at an all-day picnic honoring their visitors, Messrs. and Mesdames Perry Richmond and Henry Adams, Toledo, at their country home.

Assisted by her sister, Miss Jill Hopson, and Mrs. Homer Edwards, Mrs. Page served a variety of good foods, adding several delicious specialties to the traditional picnic fare of fried chicken, ham and barbecued sausage, all in adequately gigantic supply.

The piece de resistance and attractive, though extremely temporary, centerpiece was a clever arrangement of coleslaw and raw vegetables, piled to resemble an especially gay Carmen Miranda hat!

Should the Pages by some quirk of fate become impoverished, Mrs. Page could, I'm sure, keep the budget balanced by baking cakes professionally. When a non-cake-eater such as I eats two or three pieces then refrains from eating more, she is being modest, that indicates something out of the ordinary has happened in the kitchen!

Enjoying the day were Dr. and Mrs. Homer Wales, Messrs. and Mesdames Isaac Bacon Sr., Leland V. Bailey, Howard Bowles, O. S. R. Bryant, Homer Edwards, J. Wallace Hall, Ulysses Jarrett, Cecil A. Johnson and Frank Reed, the Misses Martha Horner and Stephanie Ann Tyler and Thomas Horner.

Another enjoyable picnic was that Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Simpson, where men of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity and their families, along with guests, spent several relaxed hours.

Before returning to the confinement of the city, the picnickers climaxed the afternoon by visiting the Simpsons' next-door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Powers, who graciously showed them through their beautifully furnished, newly-built ranch type home.

Working on the planning committee were Mesdames Theodore Randall, chairman; Grant Hawkins, Joseph Taylor and L. C. Simpson. Messrs. Randall and Simpson assisted the ladies.

"The population of the social community was practically depleted over the weekend as members of Gamma Phi Delta sorority's Gamma chapter entertained at their second boat dancing party at Cincinnati.

With various things keeping me in Indianapolis, I was unable to say "yes" to the interestingly done, passport type invitation sent by the chapter. Those who did go lost no time reporting that the affair, as expected, bordered on the fabulous and was most enjoyable.

Certainly the pictures to the right bear out their reports! It was pleasant to meet during the week Mrs. St. Elmo Robinson, here from Sacramento visiting her mother, Mrs. W. S. Henry, and sister, Mrs. Eleanor S.oval.

Mrs. Robinson, the former Miss Louise Henry, is a very busy social worker out West and was a most interesting conversationalist in discussing various phases of her work when I met her at a small gathering hosted by Mrs. Paul A. Battles on Tuesday night.

Another former resident is expected home from the West Coast next week. Mrs. Frances Valentine, who used to teach at School No. 4, is to arrive here Saturday, July 19, by plane from Los Angeles to visit her brother, Elder Jonathan C. Holeman.

Planning to stay until July 26, she will undoubtedly be glad to see and hear from her many friends during her week-long visit. The Holemans live at 1533 W. 27th, and the phone number is WA. 6-5735, if you need information.

While most of us stayed at home for the holiday weekend with families, the Cal Thompsons and their son, Lester, chose to go away in order to be with her family. They spent the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Howard, at Owensboro, Ky.

From our FAC Notes columnist, Mrs. Elsa Jackson, comes an interesting account of the first part of the FAC tour to the Caribbean Islands, which you will find interesting:

"The first lap of our trip is now behind us. At 5:15 p. m. Monday we left the union station for the Sir John Hotel, Miami. The hotel is a Negro establishment and is perfectly fabulous! It takes up a half-block one way and a full block the other way. It is built as one rectangular building with a beautiful swimming pool in the center court. The pool is surrounded by beautiful palm trees and gorgeously colored tropical plants.

"Plenty of outdoor furniture is on hand, and everything one can think of is in the building. We had dinner in the beautiful hotel dining room. The food was simply delicious and beautifully prepared. The country is like a dream—so many varieties and species of colorful, exotic trees and flowers.

"We will have Tuesday to do as we like and on Wednesday will board a Pan-American Airlines plane for the trip to the Virgin Islands.

"By the way, Dr. and Mrs. George Watkins met us at Union Station at home and gave each of us a bag of candy tied with blue ribbon. They also gave each of us chewing gum and Life Savers. Mrs. Ada Turner of New York, visiting the Watkinses, assisted.

"Those who helped make the trip possible for me will never know what it means!"

Mrs. Charles E. Harry sent a nice postal card from Providence, where she and Mr. Harry and their grandchildren from Los Angeles (spending the summer with the Harrys) were visiting during a "grand trip" in the East, including Washington, Philadelphia, New York City and Rhode Island.

Miss Willa Thomas who, bless her, always thinks of me with carefully chosen postal cards wherever she is in her constant hopping-about, sent one from Detroit. She says she is very tired and is going to take a good rest—lucky girl! She is, you know, our almost superhumanly busy church columnist who is quietly becoming known all over the world wherever Baptists are located.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland V. Bailey and Mrs. Marcus C. Stewart were called to Springfield, O., last Satur-smiling in the center bottom picture are Mesdames Douglass, Rachel Buckner and Porter and Miss Norris Tanner. With the "Happy Birthday" sign in the background explaining their hilarity, posing at the bottom right are Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Laws, Mrs. George Johnson Jr. of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Sadie Pringle, Mrs. George Johnson of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kent, while Mesdames Porter and Douglass again join the fun (in front).

Douglass. At the top right are a group leaving Cincinnati's ritzy Netherland-Hilton Hotel for the dance. They are Messrs. and Mesdames George Walker, Thomas Lowe and Carter Hill and Mrs. James Burres. Mrs. Lowe was hostess for the group. Emphasizing the nautical side of the dance, Mrs. Louvenia Hughbank, John Broaden, Lloyd Gilbert and Mrs. Broaden (bottom left) donned sea-farers' hats in their gaiety. Members of the dance committee

GLAD TO HAVE YOU! Mr. and Mrs. Horace Page (left) are intent upon the delicious food they prepared for the picnic they gave Friday honoring visitors from Toledo as they pose for Recorder Photographer Jim Burres. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Richmond (center) and Mrs. Henry Adams, along with Mr. Adams, who had gone exploring when the picture was taken, made several new friends during their weekend visit here. In the left corner is the real head of the Page household, little "Mike."

day to attend the funeral of the women's cousin, A. C. Bell. The Baileys, incidentally, plan to visit relatives in Detroit next week. Also to be away next week is Mrs. Ernest R. Battles, who has been invited to attend the fifth an-

Voice of the Eastside

By MAPY P. McGUIRE

Among many species of animals, if one of their number is wounded and falls, he is at once torn to pieces by his fellows. Traces of this animal cruelty are seen in men and women today. Let a woman fall from virtue, and nine-tenths of her sisters will turn and tear her to pieces and the next day smile on the man who ruined her! The cruelty of woman to woman is perfectly wolfish!

But may I remind you that when it was written in the sand that the woman had sinned, Jesus said, "Let him that is without sin throw the first stone." Remember how they all threw down their stones and walked away?

Readers, let's think first before speaking.

Mrs. Anna Washington, state Baptist women's president and national vice-president of the Women's Home and Foreign Missions, will be guest speaker Sunday morning for Women's Day at Eastern Star Baptist Church. All singing units of the church will furnish music.

In the afternoon Rev. James E. Odum will speak, and his congregation of Twenty-Fifth Street Baptist Church will accompany him. Mrs. Sadis Hardiman, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Adele Jones.

Mrs. Mary A. Barnett, church clerk, reports they expect this to be one of the largest Women's Day services in history.

Rev. P. C. Owens is pastor.

Hundreds are expected to attend the commencement program of the Central Baptist Theological Seminary of Indiana at 8 next Thursday night at Mt. Paran Baptist Church, of which Dr. C. Henry Bell is pastor. Dr. F. Benjamin Davis is president and dean.

Among Eastsiders to participate is Rev. Roosevelt Mumford, Rev. H. A. King, pastor of Second Baptist Church, New Albany, will deliver the commencement address on "Get Off the Ground."

Rev. Robert L. Saunders, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Shelbyville, will be guest speaker Sunday afternoon at 3 for the Gospel chorus of New Bethel Baptist Church. If you miss hearing him, you will miss a real message. Dr. F. Benjamin Davis is host pastor.

This is somewhat late, but congratulations are due the usher board of New Bethel Baptist Church, with Bert Means as president. Recently the board raised more than $300 in one effort. Not to cracking one's own whip, but they are really on the job when the time comes around for raising money.

Mr. Means has been president several years and makes a good one. This is one place a man is really saddled in the church.

Be sure not to forget the State Sunday School and Training Union Congress mass meeting to be held at South Calvary Baptist Church at 3:30 Sunday. At end and see what goes!

Miss Susie Peters, a teacher at School No. 56, has just returned from vacationing in Minneapolis and Rochester, Minn., enjoying seeing the land of 10,000 lakes and the beautiful Mayo Clinic.

Talking with her, I learned that "Junior" Oliver, 2300 Columbia, was winner of the tots' contest sponsored by the school's PTA recently. Mrs. Maud Plack is principal of the school.

An "Outdoor Conference" was well attended last Sunday at the home of your Ole Scribe, in interest of the Baltimore Memorial Window committee of New Bethel Baptist Church.

Mrs. Mabel Satterfield, who was with the King and King Funeral Home for more than 20 years, responded to an announcement appearing in The Recorder and graciously consented to serve on the committee as secretary. Mrs. Florence Martin, as co-chairman, was assisted by Miss Lucille Murphy, who presented a very fine outline for repeating the "Calendar Week."

Mrs. Lillie B. Thomas, another very worthwhile person, took the responsibility of selecting 12 captains for the wedding. Mrs. Grace Sherron will be in the "receiving line" for the affair, while William A. Bailey and Howard Connell will remain in their selected places as contact chairman and treasurer. Ed Sherron will assist the reception committee.

After a very spicy one-hour meeting, we adjourned to meet each and every Sunday at the same place from 5 to 6. At the next meeting Mrs. Thomas will present captains, and the captains will select their own brides, with $75 to be the least considered for the winning bride.

The committee is still appealing for all interested persons to meet them each Sunday from 5 to 6 at 504 N. Dorman (1100 E. Michigan). Special thanks to The Recorder for allowing this special mention in the column.

A pre-recital and get-acquainted hour was highly enjoyed by parents and friends of the piano students of Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald last Sunday afternoon at the East-side Christian Center, 1537 N. Arsenal. Fifteen students were presented.

The table was beautifully decorated, and the refreshments—delicious punch, candies and nuts—were enjoyed by all.

Rev. Edwin Kenney officiated before an altar graced with two seven-branched candelabra and decorated with palms.

Family pews were marked with white satin bows, while a white runner covered the aisle. Music was provided by Miss Mildred Watson, soprano, and Miss Ruthie Collins was organist.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace and net with sweetheart neckline. The bodice was of lace, while the neckline was surrounded with white pearls and sequins. Long sleeves tapered to points over her hands. The wide skirt was of net, and the finger-tip veil fell from a beautiful crown of rhinestones and sequins.

Her jewelry consisted of a strand of white pearls and tiny pearl earrings. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses centered with a white orchid. She was given in marriage by her step-father.

Mrs. Ernestine Carroll was matron-of-honor. Her semi-length gown was of pink organza over slips of net and silk. Her hat was a short veil of white attached to a white crown. She carried pink roses with pink bows and wore pink shoes and white gloves.

Mesdames Kay Brooks and Patricia Phelps were bridesmaids, wearing dresses and hats identical in style to that of the matron-of-honor, done in yellow. They carried yellow roses with yellow bows and yellow shoes, with white gloves.

Best man was Benny Carroll Jr., and Marcus Phelps, Venozy Nance and Jesse Arnold served as ushers. A reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlor immediately after the ceremony. Assisting with the serving were the bride's sister, Mrs. Johnnie Johnson, with Mesdames Mary Akers and Barbara Smith.

The table was decorated with a punchbowl and pink slab cake at the ends, with the centerpiece being a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Pink and white roses surrounded the cake, while the pink undercloth showed through the white lace cloth which covered the table.

In charge of the gift book was the bride's sister, Miss Delores Anderson. Also assisting with the gifts were another sister, Mrs. Susie Sullivan, and the groom's aunt, Mrs. Kathryn Willet.

HEADACHE?

NEW TESTS PROVE BC BEATS 'EM ALL! ...AND BC WON'T UPSET THE STOMACH

If you've taken BC, you know it acts fast on headaches.

Now, scientific tests prove you're right. An independent medical organization gave people four leading headache remedies at different times.

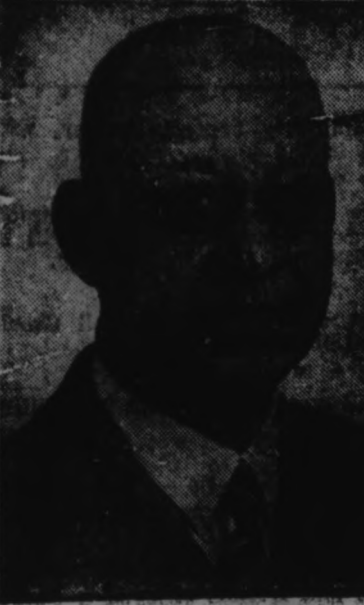

ONE MINUTE after dosage, they took a small blood sample from each person. They found more BC pain-relieving ingredients in the blood stream. More than from the leading plain aspirin, the leading buffered aspirin or the leading compound. And other tests showed BC won't upset your stomach.

Get the fastest head-start on headaches—with BC. It's fast—gentle, too. Buy the familiar BC powders, for work or at home. Or get BC tablets, in the handy tin or in an economical large bottle.

Mrs. Burton stated that the Holy Atmosphere that existed during the six day meeting was miraculous. In keeping with the theme, which was "He Is The Lord Of All." Brotherly love was exemplified throughout the entire session. Among the more than 5,000 women attending the Fifth Quadrennial meeting integration was stressed and exemplified. It was also stressed by each speaker, and there was the moment when 5,000 women spoke in unison for the first time saying "We Have Come To Proclaim Jesus Christ Lord Of All." This meeting was the National Council of Women's Organizations held at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana, June 25 through July 1.
The opening session featured a keynote address by Mrs. Paul Moser, outstanding United Presbyterian Church leader, based on the overall theme, "He is Lord of All." Inspirational addresses by a number of outstanding church leaders were also included in the week-long program.
Highlight of the meeting was the adoption of a "Charter for Christian Action" drawn up on the basis of recommendations coming from more than 3,000 local church study groups conducted during the past year. The charter will guide the efforts of Presbyterian Women's Organizations in their work at home and abroad.
This national meeting was the last one to be held by women organizations of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., which last month merged with the United Presbyterian Church of North America to form the more than 3,000,000 member United Presbyterian Church in U. S. A. The women approved a provisional constitution for a new United Presbyterian Women's Organization. Representatives of women's groups of the former United Presbyterian Church of North America were guests at the week-long meeting. Other delegates and visitors included women from churches in Cuba, Brazil, Alaska, Chile, Mexico, Indonesia, and the Cameroons, West Africa. Nearly 200 missionaries and church members from national mission and overseas fields attended the Quadrennial Conference. Only registered delegates were permitted to attend.
Special music was provided by massed choirs from Indiana and an interracial choir from Chicago.
Mrs. Burton, is the wife of Rev. H. L. Burton, pastor of Phillips Temple and was a delegate from the Connectional council of the Women's Missionary Society of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE Carter Memorial Baptist Church
3178 N. CAPITOL AVENUE
Ho, my comrades, see the signal, victory is nigh. The signs of the times show us the Second coming of Christ is near at hand. It is a late hour. We must put aside all insincerity, frivolity and play-acting in our religious lives and work hard to do the Will of God. He will not always be as patient and kind to us. Will the book be closed without your name written there? The real Christian must tighten up and search for the unsaved. The unsaved must run, run, run, to God. If you do not have a home, come and go to a mansion with us. We are striving each day to be pure and loving and fit to see the Bride room. How about YOU?

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

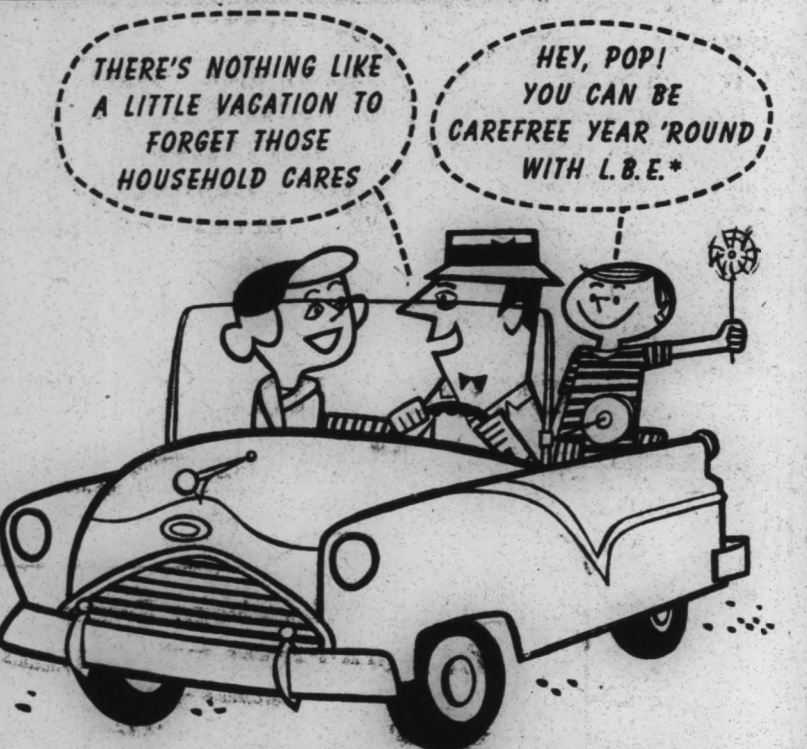

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

and Atty. Briscoe Koger of Baltimore.

All are white except Miss Trammell, Dr. Banks and Atty. Koger.

What do they think? Rev. Allan: "Of course, in rural areas like my part of Virginia, people are more conservative. We have separate congregations and conventions, though the ministerial association is mixed."

"I think we should move slowly. The Negroes will agree, I think, that we should move slowly."

Miss Trammell smiled and shook her head. "My grandmother used to say, 'Just pray to the Lord and wait.' Even my mother quietly accepted the situation. Then as Negroes traveled about more they realized things were different in other parts of America and could be different for them too," she said.

"RIGHT NOW, my generation is tired of waiting. What we want is desegregation — we'll do our own integration."

Dr. Banks: "Yes, the law can only be expected to forbid segregation. Full integration cannot be legislated. That is a thing which must come voluntarily."

Miss Trammell: "Our Negro society has social discrimination like any other. No one can force me to like this one or that one, colored or white. I don't want to be told to go to the third-class hotel or the first-class one. I just want freedom to do as I wish."

"Of course, I can understand how people who've always been on top feel about others coming on, but in this country we can do anything, within the law, to change things if we feel they aren't right."

"It's hard for white people who speak out for us. They have a word for them, 'Nigger-lovers.'"

Rev. Logan: "Christians shouldn't mind that. We ought to be Chinese-lovers, Japanese-lovers and Negro-lovers — and every other kind. The bad thing about it is when Christians get called Communists."

Opportunity and education were key words.

Miss Trammell: "It is the terrible waste of ability I hate to see. Some people are clever and some are stupid no matter what color their skin is. I don't want to be refused work I am qualified for."

Discussion ranged over historical backgrounds, slavery, the Civil War, over housing, the Negro crime rate, education, fear of economic competition.

Rev. Logan told of Arkansas white college students at a convention at the time of the Little Rock incidents, who, on their own initiative, brought in a resolution stressing their belief in obedience to the law, equality of all men before God and equal opportunity. DR. ANDREWS SPOKE of a vote in favor of integration by administration, faculty and students.

ENJOY BUS TRIP: Members of the Sunday school at Garfield Baptist Church enjoyed a bus excursion to New York State and Ontario, Canada, during the July 4 weekend. Before their return Sunday night, they visited Niagara Falls, on both the American and Canadian sides, and Crystal Beach in Ontario. While in New York, they stayed at the Hotel Buffalo. Smith H. Cheatham is Sunday school superintendent, and Rev. Charles Poole is pastor.

dents at all-white Baylor University.

Miss Trammell said she had been most surprised in Toronto because color was completely ignored. In shops, restaurants, she was treated as a person, without emphasis of any kind.

"The thing which hurts so often is that so many white people we simply aren't people," she stated.

"Does a six-day conference working side by side have any effect on the thinking of those participating?" Miss Trammell wanted to know.

"I am sure that it does have a good effect," said Dr. Adams. "Two young white persons from Arkansas and Alabama were heard to comment yesterday that they have had 'a complete change of opinion since coming to the Baptist Youth Conference."

"A white Virginian said, 'It is the first time we have felt drawn together. We believe this is God's way and we will work hard to make it as God would have it — for us to love all mankind and treat them as one in Christ.'"

LIZZIE MCKISSICK

Services for Mrs. Lizzie McKissick, 55, 227 W. 14th, were held July 2 in Jacobs Brothers West-side Chapel, with burial at Portland, Tenn. Mrs. McKissick died June 27 in General hospital.

A native of Portland, Mrs. McKissick had lived here 10 years.

Montclair Acres Opened As New Vacation Area

The highly promising Montclair Acres, new vacation land in the Hoosier State, is located on Lake Lenape, a few miles northwest of Logansport.

The site has the making of an ideal vacation center, with two or more lakes in the immediate area. The prospects of good fishing are met on all sides, and other activities of vacation centers fit fully into the making of a real Hoosier playground.

Montclair Acres is located immediately on the lake front, and around three-score choice lake front lots have been available recently to people desiring to own a piece of vacation playground.

Lots are from one to five acres. Some restrictions have been established upon the type and size of construction, but the price ranges of lots will fit into the budget of almost any homemaker.

The new vacation land project is the first in the area promoted or financed and owned by Negro people. It is owned and operated by two Chicago families, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson.

H. Dale Brown

the fine legislation that makes Indianapolis and Marion County the metropolitan community it is today.

Long known as a "true friend" of the Negro, Brown has many firsts in his fight for "equality for all."

HIS RECOGNITION of the Negro Community has been unsurpassed by any politician since the days of George V. Coffin.

Among his first was the hiring of 70 Negro girls as machine operators, bookkeepers, clerks and various other highly skilled office jobs. It was the first time in the history of the Statehouse that Negroes had been hired for jobs other than janitors, maids and in similar capacities.

Brown is also credited with the responsibility for much of the ground work in the nomination of State Senator Robert Lee Broken-burr as the Republican nominee for Judge of Superior Court 3.

He is presently pushing for the appointment of a Negro to a major position in the Statehouse and has diligently worked for the appointment of Negroes to the Indiana State Police.

A personable, easy-to-meet individual, he has personally supported many civic and charitable enterprises in the Negro Community.

Active in civic affairs as well as political, he has served as chairman of the Marion County Division of the United Fund and twice served as county chairman of the American Red Cross. He also has been active in the P. A. L. Club and in many campaigns for civic improvement, including many drives to save the Indianapolis Indians.

In pointing out his reasons for appointing Brown to fill the vacancy Unversaw said Dale Brown has proven himself an accomplished administrator and organizer.

POLITICAL OBSERVERS agree Brown's name on the ticket will be a definite asset to the Republican Party in its bid for the Negro vote in the November elections.

He has been asked by associates of Richard M. Nixon to serve as an organizer on the Nixon for President staff because of his statewide recognition.

the Senate Avenue "Y" board of management; William C. Johnson, Doyle Smith, chairman of the advisory committee; Spurling Clark, member of the board of management, and Smith H. Cheatham, master of ceremonies and chairman of the cornerstone-laying committee. Pledges and payments will go toward furnishing the new building.

COOK WITH CARNATION for ground beef that stays juicy, never crumbles!

Exciting New Cheeseburger Recipe:

CARNATION BUNBURGERS.

(Makes 6 servings)

¾ cup (small can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK	1½ teaspoons salt
1 egg	¼ teaspoon pepper
1½ pounds ground beef	1 teaspoon dry mustard
½ cup fine cracker crumbs	½ cup finely chopped onion
	½ cup finely chopped green pepper

1. Blend all ingredients together until well-mixed. Form meat mixture into 12 thin patties (about ½ cup each). Place each patty on hamburger bun half, covering completely. Place Bunburgers on broiler pan.

2. Broil 5-7 inches from heat for 5 to 7 minutes (or to your family's taste). Top each Bunburger with a cheese slice. Broil until cheese bubbles (1 to 2 minutes). Serve with potato chips and relishes.

Richer coffee flavor, too, with Carnation Evaporated Milk!

Carnation in the Red and White Can has twice the richness of ordinary milk. No other form of milk will do. So when you fix ground beef the better Carnation way, it keeps moist, firm and tender — whether baked, broiled or pan fried. Try it in this wonderful new kind of cheeseburgers.

Chatter for the College Set

By BILL RASPBERRY

Greetings, friends! And have recovered from your hectic Fourth of July weekend? I must admit I'm still a bit tired, but I did have a really nice time. Actually the fun started well before the weekend, to be specific:

Last Wednesday, July 2, Curtis Jackson hosted a small card party at his home, 3226 N. Capitol. Then he immediately proceeded to be a very ungracious host by winning, together with his partner Mike Hall, 14 consecutive games of bid whist, including three "Bostons."

I understand Joyce Jackson and Ronald Webb finally beat them in the last game.

While June Cox and Halbert Dickerson apparently weren't too successful at cards, they at least contributed to the conversation.

Virginia Pettigrew, Rosie Cheatham, Jean Avery and Lillian Thompson, who spent last weekend in New York, were seated at a send-off party given by Virginia's sister, Mrs. Nancy Bradley, 1249 W. 35th. All four of the honorees are members of the Calypso club. Guests included Laura Mays, Mayola Brown, Esther Quarles, Pat and Charlene Cox, Gail and Bonnie Hurst, Bobbie Brown, Roy Howard, Joe Broyles, Mike Smith, Franklin Terrell, Bill Scott, Stan Patton, Donald and Fuller Jones, Robert Prather, Laura Williams, Frahn Rouse, George Williams, Sharon Suber, Teresa Tallefer, Tyrone Hickman, Faye Brown, Robert Coe, Patty Stout, Edith Harrison and Morton Goode.

I'm certain I missed a lot of names, but most of the people were constantly going in and out, and it's pretty tough to remember them all.

Somebody should tell Virginia it's really not necessary to turn the furnace on during the summer months. Must have been at least 110 degrees in there!

Local Kappas sponsored a giant-sized picnic at the Kappa Kastle, 42nd and Boulevard, July 4. Most of those attending, however, were members of the alumni chapter.

The younger set was represented by Mason and Jimmie Bryant, Esther Quarles, Fred Brooks, Lee Ransaw, Don Jackson of Milwaukee, Johnnie Jones, Alma Dallas, Billy Harris and Doris Hayes, of North Carolina. Doris, a senior at Meharry, was a guest in the Bryant home for the weekend.

Paul Cooley, along with Esther Long, hosted a lawn party the evening of the Fourth at his home, 920 W. 32nd.

As fate would have it, Paul's neighbors decided to have a party at the same time and for a while the competition between the two record players was fierce. Paul would turn his down and the neighbor would tune his up. When Cooley's was turned off so his guests could dance to the music from next door, the neighbor would turn his down so low we couldn't hear it.

Finally, though, they worked out a compromise whereby both groups could dance to the same music. And if it hadn't been for that big fence, the two parties just might have merged!

Enjoying the dancing and card playing — despite being eaten alive by the mosquitoes — were Bobbie Brown, Glendonia Smith, Jim Cornett, John Anderson, Emory Turner, Buford King, Irma Buford, Laura Mays, Marilyn Merton, Sheila Lyles, Bernice White, Esther Quarles, Gwen Glover, Otha and Sandra Jackson and Donald Jones.

One of the nicest and quietest affairs I've attended for a long time was the party that same night at Minnie Campbell's, 623 W. 40th. And when I say nice and quiet I don't mean dead, for 'twas really loads of fun.

Thanks to the inexperience of my partner Morris Gurnell (I've got to blame somebody), I lost at bid whist to Alton Allen and Helen Emile — and I immediately did all I could to discourage card playing. After all...

A large portion of the evening was spent at Roselyn Green's Ecole de danse, where she was giving group instructions in the Birdland, newest dance rage. Roselyn's good at it from both the performance and instructional points of view — even succeeded in teaching me one or two steps!

As the evening progressed, Minnie waxed sentimental and put on a stack of old favorites, which seemed to bring back warm memories for most of the guests. (Of course I'm much too young to remember such oldies as "Glory of Love," "Close Your Eyes," etc.) While it wasn't actually an official Delta party, most of the ladies there were members of the sorority. And where there are Deltas there's bound to be singing.

The DSTs included, aside from Minnie and Roselyn, Jamesetta Petway, Marsha Bradley, Johnnie Walton, Jackie Henry, Esther Quarles, Helen Emile and Alice Conyers.

After the Deltas set the pace by singing several numbers, including their "Sweetheart Song," other "Greeks" joined in. Johnnie Jones and I sang loudly (if not too well) for Kappa Alpha Psi. Alton Allen was forced to do a solo to uphold the banner of Omega Psi Phi. Bobbie Taylor and Emory Turner really sounded swell for Alpha Phi Alpha — especially with the help of Alice Conyers. Cheers!

'Twas a healthy bit of "inter-Greek" rivalry and extremely enjoyable.

"Independents" attending the affair included Morton Goode, Julia Hudson, Barbara South, Patsy Nell of Chicago; Wesley Carey, John Short, Billy Harris, Morris Gurnell and Fred McCoy.

Fred Brooks and Lee Ransaw, both Kappas; Howard Bowles, an Alpha, and Helen Baker, a Delta, all left before the competition started.

Hubert Dixon and John Due were co-hosts at a party Saturday night at Dixon's home. Included among the scores of guests were Fred Brooks, Robert Bragg, Webster Brewer, Ruthie Collins, Rosslyn Green, Marsha Bradley, Harriet and Walter Blackburn, Kenneth and Helen Brown, Kirby and Delores Crawley and Walter Lee.

Loni McIntyre has returned to Germany, where he is serving in the Armed Forces, after a short furlough here.

Markie Stewart and Joe Martin spent the weekend of the Fourth painting Chicago a rather vivid scarlet, I'm told. They returned Saturday night, tired and broke.

The four Calypsos (mentioned earlier) report a really lovely time of sight-seeing, night clubbing and partying while in New York. Virginia Pettigrew, who seems to have sisters everywhere, also has one in New York and she was responsible in large measure for the pleasant time the girls enjoyed.

They returned Sunday night.

The day before, Bill Turner came home after a short stay in the Big Apple. He and Jeanne Bonner are both glad he's back.

Forrest "Tom" Jones vigorously denies last week's rumor that he was a drowning victim. An somehow I believe him.

Demetrius Smith will celebrate his birthday July 11. Congratulations!

Blind or sick or badly maimed, Dumb or even deaf,

If you're the type who goes for fun, You'll love KMSF!

That's it for now, so sit tight until next week when I'll be back with more chatter for the college set!

RIGHT IN OUR MIDST

Timothy C. Mills—
Local Success Story

People all over town know Timothy C. Mills, personable operator of the Launder-Rite self-service laundry in the 500 block of Indiana avenue. We at The Recorder know him well — after all, he's located right across the street. We take him pretty much for granted, with his pleasant manner, always friendly without being pushy. Most of us do not stop to think of him as a hero of a modern success story right in our own midst, typical of the thousands of young Negroes all over the country who are proving daily that color is no barrier to success when a man gives his best to his business or profession.

Young Mills has been elected president of the Indiana Quick Service Laundry Association, an affiliate of the American Institute of Laundering which represents the automatic laundry industry in the state. Even a casual glance at the record indicates that he was named to the top office because of merit, not because of a wave of pseudo-democracy happened to hit the laundry owners and cause them to elect a Negro — any Negro would do. In the slightly over 10 years Timothy Mills has been associated with Launder-Rite, he has shown business acumen which has built the concern to a level to compete with any in the city, and he has shown a business-like personality which has won him thousands of friends . . . and customers.

We suspect that color seldom if ever intrudes in the businessman's relationships with other members of the Indiana Quick Service Laundry Association and the Indianapolis Self Service Laundry Association, of which he is vice-president. This is the way it should be and the way it will be when more young Negroes take the chips off their shoulder, forget about color and become useful, contributing members of society. Mills helps prove what any real American understands, even in the Deep South: that with determination and effort added to proper preparation and progressiveness, any American can succeed in any line, regardless of his color. More of us need to know that!

Baptist Youth Prove
Race Can Be Forgotten

Southern Baptist youth in Canada last week seem to have amazed many people with their apparent indifference to the conglomeration of races attending the conference of Baptist young people of the world in Toronto. Many papers all over America carried feature stories on this "unusual" aspect of the meeting, and even The Recorder's own representative at the conference, Miss Willa Thomas, church columnist, reports the remarks of a Texas girl who could hardly believe the phenomenon of color not mattering.

We believe the explanation is quite simple: Deep, down beneath it all, color does not matter to anyone who is concerned about something outside himself. The moment a common interest is shared by any two people, superficial differences are forgotten, even if only temporarily. Dr. George Washington Carver is a Negro only OUTSIDE the scientific world; musicians forget that Marian Anderson has dark skin; the ethnic background of Althea Gibson is of no consequence to lovers of tennis.

Even in ordinary, every-day relationships color is easily forgotten. From time to time, we read about a Negro saving a white man's life or some white woman yanking a Negro child out of the path of a menacing car. In those instances where people become human beings without other considerations, color just doesn't enter into things. In promoting a civic project or any community development, background differences fade away at the enthusiasm of shared goals. If an idle mind is the devil's workshop, surely we can see that shared interests take away the racist's working arena.

The moral is equally simple, we think: One of the many approaches to integration in the various phases of communal living is that of shared interests. Negroes and whites must get together more often to concern themselves with something other than the "race problem." Whether it's in a religious field, the world of art or music, sciences, education or any of a multitude of others, we have to learn that we can and must work together. It will be surprising, perhaps, to see how easily people are recognized as individuals instead of racial representatives.

Every Adult Owes
Debt to Society

Paying one's debt to society has been a favorite theme of writers and speakers since the beginning of writing and speaking, probably. Yet the idea of any responsibility to society is one sadly lacking from thinking of Negroes generally. In fact, in its stead is a positive contempt for the society which has relegated him to an "inferior position," far too frequently encountered in people who have received nothing from cruel society except a comfortable living with all the benefits of urban living, no exaction made for pay except in a negligible amount of taxes, twelve years of free education and the benefits of the highest standards of living in the world.

It is society alone which makes these benefits available to us all, like the Biblical rain, falling on the just and unjust alike. Even if there is someone somewhere who does pay enough in taxes (and even at today's rates, we doubt this is so) to buy all the things he gets free, we doubt if he would ever have supplied them all for himself if society weren't there to tell him what is desirable and necessary in maintaining his high American standards. In mercenary terms, money has made each of us as separated as we are from savagery. That money has come from a corporate society which demands compensation in the form of social contribution.

In his struggle for first-class citizenship, the Negro has to grow to the realization of this. Regardless of external appearances of inferiority, the debt is there to be paid by everyone who enjoys American freedom, even though that freedom may be "in part" only. It is too much to expect every person to appreciate the concept of any debt to society, but certainly those American Negroes who are waging the battle for first-class citizenship must take the initiative in paying the cost of that high level of enjoyment of America's good things. Let us recognize our debt, and pay it.

THE ISSUE BEFORE THE COURT IS CLEAR — LIBERTY OR MOB RULE?

VOICE FROM THE GALLERY

By Andrew W. Ramsey

Southern 'Justice' Has Its Day
In Little Rock Decision

RAMSEY

After the first shock of the decision of Federal Judge Harry J. Lemley that the Little Rock School Board should suspend integration at Central high school until January, 1961, citizens all over the country have been trying to explain and to understand the significance of the ruling.

The nation's press was in the main divided on a North-South basis, with two of Indianapolis's three dailies siding with the states of the late Confederacy, and several papers of the South siding with the liberal Northern sheets.

The sophomoric reasoning of the Arkansas jurist, who is the grandson of a Confederate soldier from Virginia, that while Negroes have the right not to be excluded from any of the public schools on account of race, "desegregation" has simply "broken down under the pressure of popular opposition," is the judge's concession to traditional Southern justice.

Traditionally the local courts in the South are very sensitive to the conditions prevalent in the local communities, and in the cases of elected judges or those appointed for a limited term, the judges make very little effort to rise above local prejudices in spite of their knowledge of the law and of legal opinions outside their localities.

IN SUCH LOCALITIES the Negro still looks upon law and justice, not as protecting safeguards, but as sources of humiliation and oppression, according to the eminent Negro scholar, Dr. W. E. B. DuBois.

The aim of such courts is to preserve the color-caste system at all odds, and most such judges are dedicated to the philosophy that it is better to punish 10 innocent Negroes than to let one guilty one go free.

But Judge Lemley is a Federal judge with a lifetime appointment and consequently not subject to the pressures of local Negroes as far as his job is concerned.

Nevertheless he is subject to pressures of another kind. In his 74 years of life, the judge has not been able to overcome the things which he learned at his mother's knee, and his knowledge of the Constitution and the law of the land has not been able to outweigh the fact that he comes from a Confederate family.

Nor would a good judge at his age want to risk losing face with his white supremacist neighbors.

THE JUDGE'S RULING smacks of defiance of the Supreme Court and of the basest concession to mob rule — facts which would in more intelligent communities characterize the judge as unfit for the high judicial post which he holds.

Arguments of the so-called states' rights press that the breathing spell would be productive of good are completely phony. Their prediction that September would see the renewal of the violence which characterized last September is not accompanied by assurances that the same thing will not happen in January, 1961, should the judge's ruling be allowed to stand.

But it does suggest that courts should buckle in to the pressure of mobs, contrary to Anglo-American conceptions of the judicial function.

The faint hope expressed by the Neo-Confederate press that by 1961 Governor Orval Faubus may not still be on the scene and that therefore conditions will be more promising is strictly for the birds. Judge Lemley has enhanced the political potential of the demagogic first citizen of Greasy Creek, Ark., and barring a miracle, Orval Faubus will still be desecrating the Statehouse in 1961.

The argument of the throw-back press that Little Rock will cease to be such a dangerous symbol ignores the fact that if the decision is allowed to stand, it will be the rallying point for the deep-dyed segregationists all over the South and Indianapolis.

THE VERY PAPERS which described the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court as being "based upon sociology rather than law" are now praising a ruling based upon regional prejudice rather than law.

And for the thoughtful person, sociology is many times to be preferred over rank prejudice.

The local press which gives lip service to school desegregation and at the same time lauds the Lemley ruling continues to equate the NAACP with the White Citizens' Councils, calling them collectively "the extremists on both sides of the fence."

It claims that the present ruling is a slap at both extremes, when the writers know the decision represents a temporary victory for the White Citizens' Councils.

It is the considered opinion of the majority of thinking Americans that Judge Lemley's ruling, if allowed to stand, would effectively nullify the high court's 1954 and 1955 decisions and set racial justice back many years.

There is the hope, however,

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Social Justice and Christ

By the Union Baptist Alliance
Rev. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

(BACKGROUND SCRIPTURE: Matt. 5:17-48, 23:23-26. MEMORY VERSE: Matt. 7:12.)

We march on in this quarter in our survey of social justice in light of the Gospel. Jesus came preaching, and so coming, his basic text was Exodus 20:1-14. How faithful He was to the synagogue and the temple, yet how scrutinizing; often because of His severe criticism He was regarded as a demented radical, yet because of His reverence for the synagogue and temple He went down in civilization as a Jewish free-thinker.

Each of the great denominations has at some time claimed for itself the title of the church exclusive. If you are a member of one of these denominations, you are in debt to yourself and your fellow members to be certain that your institutional administrators do not build up habits, customs and attitudes which are foreign to the common good of humanity in general, or you do no more than other Pharisees.

THE MORAL LAW FOREVER (Matt. 5:17-19). "Two things strike me with awe," said Kant, the philosopher, "the moral law within and the starry heavens above." When we talk about the moral law, the great Ten Commandments of the Judeo-Christian thinking, Jesus says they are here to stay.

No, not merely in stone as God gave them ages ago, but in the very center of man's creature self. God created a world, a universe with man as its center. Man was created as a good being. That was the essence of his nature, the central stick of his personality. Respect for God and due regard for his fellowman would preserve him as the steward creature of God's world.

His loss of this stewardship did not alter God's plans. He sent a second Adam, Lord of the new creation, to restore and redeem His world. This is the unique role of Jesus Christ and His followers in His world.

The Law is here to stay. Break it if you will, and see how broken you are in ages to come. Obey it and enter the glory which remains for the people of God.

WHEN THE CHURCH BECOMES THE LAW (Matt. 23:23-26). The Bible is the sole authority for Christian life and conduct, according to Protestant belief, and the church is regarded as the custodian of the Holy Scriptures. For the facts of the Holy Bible to be shut off from the masses by the church leaders is to enslave the membership by the leaders.

Often leaders pass along from one generation to another the weaknesses of their forebears, changing often the meaning to suit varying circumstances of their times. Power often introduces this temptation.

However, where the stewardship of the Holy Writ is carried by faithful teachers who share interpretation with faithful students and members, the depository of truth is written on the hearts of men and women and stored up in experience and convictions to be lived out in sacred conduct.

Do you want to keep the Bible open on your altar at home and at church? Read it, cherish it and keep alive those great communions which believe in open interpretation.

WHAT DO YE MORE THAN OTHERS? (Matt. 5:20-48). Except your righteousness exceed, you cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. This brings up five great areas of justice in the Gospel. This is a justice of fulfillment.

There is the area of temper. While the law said, "Thou shalt not kill," thy brother, the Gospel says, "Don't even be angry with him." Don't regard him as unimportant. Agree with him as soon as you can. It is so important to him and to you that you must not worship "until you are right with your brother."

And there is the area of attitude toward women. While the law says, "Thou shalt not commit adultery," Jesus says don't even look upon her as merely to satisfy your sex need and married to her, go to the very end of life's road with her, except in the case of extreme immorality on her part.

In the area of church support He says don't make a church pledge, then ignore it. Let your church pledges be made of your honor, and pay in your honor.

In reaping what you sow, it is no longer "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." Jesus said, "Go the second mile." "Turn the other cheek."

In the area of your enemy, Jesus said to love him for his good. Speak well of him often and do good to him.

To be conclusive, Jesus filled the Ten Commandments with new and great meanings. This is a social Gospel of fulfillment.

Child's Prayer Voice Of The People
99 Percent Of Negroes Ignore
Struggle For Liberty, Rights

"Dear Lord:
"Help us to pray and do what is right and help those who are in need and unpopular. I will try to obey all of the commandments You gave me. Help me to do kind things as You do always. I shall always remember the commandments I love You, dear Lord, and everyone in the whole world. I thank you for ministers and for churches to worship."

In Jesus Christ's name, Amen!"

Marilyn Parrish, 149 W. 24th, a 5-A at School No. 32, was inspired to write this prayer in her Weekday Religious Education class. She attends Mt. Olive Baptist Church and has found a new appreciation for her church and pastor through her Bible class.

These classes are sponsored by the Board of Weekday Religious Education, 3524 N. Meridian. They are financed by churches, foundations, corporations and interested individuals and are offered for the fourth and fifth grade pupils whose parents request their release for one hour each week for religious instruction.

that the U. S. Court of Appeals at St. Louis will set aside the ruling of the Confederate soldier's grandson before the start of school in September.

It is the opinion of this writer that what appears to the segregationist South and its Northern satellites as a victory is only a mirage. The clock refuses to be turned back.

To the Editor:

In the June 28 issue of The Recorder, Andrew W. Ramsey wrote a telling and timely article about the Negro and his scatterbrained antics in the fight for fraternity, liberty and equality. (Must Little Rock Couple Pay Usual Price for Bravery?)

Not only at Little Rock, but throughout the nation as a whole, we find courageous individuals, dedicated to democratic principles, fighting for the blessings of liberty for the Negro, while 99 and 99/100 percent of the Negroes themselves go on their irresponsible, "Spish, Splash, I Was Taking a Bath" way, knowing little and caring less about the whole struggle for liberty and freedom.

AS A RACE we have come to believe that elected officials must somehow know exactly what we want in the way of civil rights and political equality and, once knowing, forthwith serve them to us on a silver platter. But by all means, not asking that we sacrifice anything in the process.

However, history will bear me out that as a race we must join heart and hand in this struggle for constitutional liberty and in doing so petition our elected officials to do the things we know to be true and which they know to be true, bearing in mind the words of a Federal judge that "you have no rights which they are properly invoked."

As a whole, Negroes do not appear to be the invoking kind.

A small minority of racists are once again fanning the flames of prejudice and hatred. In Federal agencies Negroes are not being promoted in sufficient number as they should be, according to experience and education. The unwritten law that Negroes and whites must not lunch together in the cafeterias or spend too much time talking to each other is being religiously enforced.

If one insists upon invoking his civil rights, he will find himself being transferred to another department and/or eternally harassed.

And through it all the so-called educated Negro assumes the attitude that "I have to put in eight hours someplace. So what?" while his more illiterate counterpart will refuse to discuss anything other than the coming Saturday night fish fry.

GREAT WONDER we have gotten as far as we have in the attainment of some of our desired goals of full citizenship.

On July 4 my family and I went out to Broad Ripple park for a swim and to see how the integration situation is going. For two years the Negro has had ample opportunities to assimilate and create goodwill as well as to break down certain pre-conceived ideas there.

But they have failed as a whole, and their failing has come about by their not knowing exactly what to do or not do.

Five hundred Negroes were packed in the southwest corner of the pool area, blocking all the tables so no one could sit down and enjoy a cool drink. As the jukebox blared out "Spish Splash," one could witness all types of gyrations accompanied by various degrees of grunts and groans.

This type of thing was not lost to the sight of Negro-haters standing around saying, "Would you want that type of thing at our better clubs?"

In this monumental struggle for fraternity, liberty and equality, the cha-cha would be better left to the privacy of the homes and the dance halls.

George A. Weathers,
1011 N. Tremont.

To Note Centennial

A plan calling for a centennial observance of freedom for Negro Americans—culminating in a Central Exposition or World Fair in 1965 — will be carried out from the Northwest where its origins and presented to the nation in a "Program of National Expansion," beginning this fall with a conference of "top leadership" from about the nation.

The "Century Mark Plan," as it is known, calls for a "single united nation-wide effort" and the sponsors of the plan would invite all others who may have thoughts or contemplations toward this end to join hands, unite and make the effort real and everlasting.

According to the sponsors, the entire occasion commemorating the historic achievement and progress of a loyal segment of American citizens, is too sacred to permit commercialization by any part or section of the nation.

The sponsors of the plan therefore wish to be considered as temporary and will surrender all necessary authority to a national planning committee, a body now in the making. This committee must be representative of all essential lines of endeavor and all sections of the nation and will include men and women of both races.

The plan is being organized and incorporated on a non-sectarian and non-political basis.

JOHN L. BLOUNT, Seattle architect and a former Texan, was in Cincinnati, Sunday and Monday, June 29-30, conferring with local leaders on certain essentials of the immediate program.

Blount is general director (promoted) of the Century Mark Movement and was chairman of the planning committee for Negro participation in the Texas Centennial, a World's Fair held in Dallas in 1936. He was director of Negro exhibits in the Hall of Negro Life and Activities in the Centennial.

He brings the Texas Centennial experience into the new movement.

Blount's visit in Cincinnati was part of an extended trip, the focal point of which was the convention of the National Newspaper Publishers Association which met in Philadelphia in June. The plan was presented to the convention.

Mays Says 'Hey,' But Rest Of Nationals Go Quietly

BALTIMORE — Willie Mays did his part to "win this one for Campy" here Tuesday, but the National League All-Stars succumbed tamely to the American Leaguers 4-3.

Moved to leadoff batter because of his speed and daring, the irrepressible "Say Hey Kid" came through with a hit on the game's first pitch and some base-running that accounted for 2 of the Nationals' 3 scores.

But aside from pitcher Dick Farrell and perhaps Stan "The Man" Musial, the rest of the National Leaguers pretty much went quietly. That included Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney, who sent his 6th, 7th and 8th batters to the plate in the 9th, while the likes of Richie Ashburn, George Crowe and Lee Walls rode the bench.

BEFORE THE GAME Haney received a good luck telegram from Roy Campanella, paralyzed former Dodger catcher who played in 7 All-Star games and caught 4 in a row without relief. Campy pleaded:

"Win this one for me."

It looked like the Nationals were going to do just that when Mays slapped a single off Bob Turley's game-starting pitch and then went to 3rd on Musial's record-breaking 17th All-Star hit.

Hank Aaron's long sacrifice fly played Mays and the Cubs' Ernie Banks was hit by a pitch. Frank Thomas walked and Turley looked like "Wild Bill" instead of "Bullet Bill" as he unleashed a wild pitch on which Musial scored.

THE NATIONALS' 2-0 lead looked good, but the Americans bounced right back in their half of the 1st. Leadoff batter Nellie Fox rapped a grounder to Banks, but the Chicago shortstop committed the game's first error as his throw pulled Musial off the bag. Fox later scored the Americans' first run.

Up again in the 2nd, Mays reached 1st base on a force play. He took off to steal 2nd and when Gus Triandos' throw went into center field, continued to 3rd. He came home on a single by Bob Skinner to give the Nationals a 3-1 advantage.

But that was all she wrote and the rest of the game went according to the script. It ended dully as Milwaukee catcher Del Crandall popped to 2nd while, like we said, Ashburn, Crowe, etc., were looking on instead of pinching.

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (ANP) — Despite his advanced (?) years — no one seems to be able to pin him down to how old he really is — Satchel Paige continues to show excellent form on the mound.

Last week the ageless ace made his second appearance in as many games to chalk up his 5th win in 9 decisions. He pitched a 6-5, 10-1.

Crowe Rebounds from Injury to All-Star Game

By BILL BROWER FOR ANP

In the waning days of the 1957 season George Crowe, hard-hitting 1st baseman for the Cincinnati Reds, twisted a knee. He did not think the injury too serious. But during the winter, the damaged joint failed to respond to treatment.

At the Redlegs' training base at Tampa last spring, Crowe was lamenting that his baseball career might be over.

"I don't know what my future is," said George.

Fortunately, the knee came around and Crowe is enjoying the finest season of his major league career. The 35-year-old 1st sacker, who was on the National League all-star squad Tuesday, has made the Cincinnati fans forget their longtime idol, Ted Kluszewski.

Statistics tell why. As of this writing Crowe is batting .316, good enough for 8th in the National League, and he has driven in 42 runs.

Even after Kluszewski went to Pittsburgh in a winter deal, Crowe had staunch competition for the 1st base slot. The Reds had purchased bulky Steve Bilko from Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League after the '57 season. In the Klu deal, the team acquired still another 1st baseman in Dee Fondy. Only recently, the Redlegs bought Walt Dropo from the Chicago White Sox.

Bilko went to the Los Angeles Dodgers in the Don Newcombe trade. Fondy is bench and pinch-hitting strength. Dropo also was obtained primarily as a pinchhitter.

Crowe apparently has the 1st base assignment locked up now. Were it not for Stan Musial, George would have been the NL's all-star 1st baseman.

Actually the fans picked him last season, but because of too many Cincinnati players on the team, Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick replaced Crowe with Musial.

Recently Crowe has shared in the Cincinnati slump at the plate, going 1-for-21 in a disastrous stretch. GEORGE BEGAN to see regular action with the Redlegs last season when a back ailment kept Kluszewski on the sidelines. Crowe's hitting helped keep the Reds in the hot NL race prior to the '57 all-star game.

Over the 1957 season Crowe saw action in 131 games, batted .271, hit 31 home runs and drove in 92 tallies. The previous year, during which he went to Cincy in a trade from the Milwaukee Braves, he batted .250, hit 10 homers and had 36 RBIs. That season his action was limited chiefly to pinchhitting.

THE DURABLE HOOSIER — he was born at Whiteland, Ind., and played college basketball at Indiana Central College — has been in organized baseball since 1949. He started in the old Boston Braves' organization.

He hit .354 with Pawtucket in the New England League that year, driving in 106 runs. With Hartford in the Eastern League in 1950, he batted a gaudy .353 and had 119 RBIs.

LOCAL RED SOX PLAY IN TERRE HAUTE GAME

TERRE HAUTE — The Indianapolis Red Sox will play the Cincinnati Tigers at Memorial Stadium here Saturday, July 12, in a baseball game beginning at 7:45 p. m.

WIMBLEDON, England (ANP) — If color bars in tennis were still intact, the United States last week would have lost the Wimbledon women's singles title.

Instead, a lanky 31-year-old girl from Harlem retained the title to give America its 15th straight victory at the famed shrine of world tennis.

Althea Gibson — who last year was the first of her race to win the coveted Wimbledon crown — saved the day for Uncle Sam by defeating Angela Mortimer of Britain 8-6, 6-2, in the women's final of the 72nd annual championships.

The match, billed as America vs. England, was played before 17,000 partisan fans, including the Duchess of Kent, on the famed center court.

Afterwards Miss Gibson teamed with Maria Bueno of Brazil to win the women's doubles crown by defeating the all-American team of Margaret DuPont of Wilmington, Del., and Margaret Verner of El Paso, Tex., 6-3, 7-5.

Her bid for a rare "Wimbledon triple" was jolted when she and Kurt Nielsen of Denmark were beaten in mixed doubles by the underdog Australian team of Bob Howe and Lorraine Coghlan by scores of 6-3, 13-11.

FOLLOWING THE hard day Althea, near exhaustion, hinted she will bypass any bid of Jack Kramer or other professionals to sign her to a pro contract. She said she hoped to be at Wimbledon again next year.

"Mr. Kramer has not spoken to me and I have not spoken to him," she declared. "I don't know what's in his mind and he doesn't know what's in mine."

In the semifinals, the world sports queen who learned her tennis on the sidewalks of Harlem "annihilated" 19-year-old Ann Haydon of Britain, 6-2, 6-0, in just 31 minutes.

Miss Gibson's chief rival in the tournament was expected to be 19-year-old Christine Truman of Britain. Christine had scored an upset over Althea in the Wightman Cup play, won by Britain, and Britishers hoped she would repeat it at Wimbledon.

As it turned out, Althea did not have to beat her. Little Mimi Arnold of Redwood, Calif., did it for her American teammate.

AS THE TOURNAMENT drew to a close, Althea was the lone American singles contender remaining. All others had been eliminated.

Detroit, Black Barons Play Friday, July 11

Fans who were rained out of a chance to see the one-and-only Reece "Goose" Tatum perform at first base last month will get another opportunity as the Detroit Clowns play at Victory Field on Friday, July 11.

Providing the opposition in the Negro American League game will be the ever-reliable Birmingham Black Barons. The contest starts at 8 p. m.

The undisputed world's champion of sports comedians, "The Goose" was here a day early for last month's game, setting at rest any suspicions that the Detroit club might be merely using his name. Wesley O. Jackson, promoter of Friday's contest, said there are plans to get him on TV or radio again this time if his schedule permits.

In the funny-man department Tatum — who is declared to be the owner of the Clowns — has the able assistance of Prince Joe Henry, 3rd baseman extraordinaire. It's hard to conceive of a better double-play combination, where laughs are concerned.

TURNING TO STRAIGHT baseball, Detroit's top attraction is John Childress, 20-year-old right-hander from Columbia, Tenn., who tops the league with a 6-0 record.

The fast-firing youngster seems headed for a major league contract before the summer is over. He recently hurled a 3-hitter against Memphis before 15,000 fans at Yankee Stadium.

As Detroit won the game 13-3, Childress fanned 12, walked only 4 and also turned in a 5-for-5 day at the plate, getting 3 triples, a double and a single. Manager Ed Steele uses him in the outfield when he is not pitching, because he is the club's top slugger with 8 triples this summer. He is hitting at a merry .394 pace.

Another bad man with a bat is regular 1st baseman Bernie Porter, a 21-year-old Chicagoan. At Yankee Stadium, Porter belted two homers over the left field fence which carried 420 and 460 feet respectively, by tape measure.

Willie Harris, an 18-game winner for Detroit last season, is right behind Childress with a 5-2 record. He has averaged 9 strikeouts per game, and can be ready to join a triple-A club.

THE BLACK BARONS, who will always give you a game of baseball, are leading the league by 4½ games with one of the young teams in their history. Their crop of stellar rookies is headed by Willie Smith, 18-year-old southpaw who currently sports a 6-1 record.

"Old men" of the club are playing manager John Henry Williams, 23, right fielder who has been called the best player in the NAL; and catcher Otha Bailey, 24, an outstanding handler of young pitchers who is known around the circuit as "Blood and Guts."

Arthur Williams is general manager.

'GOOSE' TATUM

PRINCE JOE HENRY

'Little Joe Louis' Brown To Take On 'Brother Lane'

HOUSTON, Tex. — When lightweight champion Joe Brown knocked out Ralph Dupas recently, he said from the ring immediately after the KO: "I hope Brother Lane was watching because I'll do the same thing to him."

In the Brown-Dupas fight, Joe, called "Little Joe Louis," swarmed all over his New Orleans fellow-townsmen, giving him a sound thrashing.

Now Kenny Lane, who has been claiming Brown was evading him, is getting his chance. The Muskegon, Mich., challenger and Brown have signed for a 15-round nationally televised title fight in Sam Houston Coliseum on July 23.

The cocky Lane said he can whip Brown.

But Brown, an excellent boxer-puncher, has beaten every left-hander he has faced. Thirty-two knockouts are included in his record of 72 victories, 15 defeats and 9 draws.

The 32-year-old champion has stopped every challenger since he won the title from Wallace "Bud" Smith. His victims were Smith (in a return bout), Orlando Zulueta, Joey Lopes and Dupas.

Dupas Fights For Right To Be White Since 'White Is Right'

NEW ORLEANS (ANP)—Ralph Dupas, who lost a recent bid at the lightweight title to champion Joe Brown, is continuing an her fight — to have the state declare him a member of the white race.

Accused of being of colored parentage, Dupas for some time now has been seeking the right to box as a white contestant. Louisiana has a law prohibiting mixed athletic competition — which kept Brown, who hails from New Orleans, from defending his title in the Crescent City. The bout was moved to Houston, Tex.

Dupas won a temporary victory when Judge Rene A. Vioeca, in civil court, ordered the city to issue him a certificate as white.

However, the decision was upset by a higher court, which said records showed that Dupas was born in Divane, a community in Plaquemine, instead of New Orleans as he claims. His parents' name was listed as Duplessis.

Records reportedly show some of Ralph's brothers and sisters have registered as white. (His brother Dave fights in New Orleans, apparently as a Negro.)

Ralph is dark in color and broad in features.

BASEBALL... Through various manipulations conjured by Wesley O. Jackson local sportsman and dealer in real estate, Oliver Harrison's Indianapolis All Stars will play the Kansas City Monarchs on July 18, at Victory Field. Mr. Jackson promoted this game with only one thought in mind... to give our local team a chance for first-class competition and help build Naptown as the center of attraction for top-flight baseball... which in turn will help build up attendance at our local park through the interest in Negro baseball.

ALL AROUND town people were asking about Negro baseball and when they would get a chance to see some of their teams in action. Being a true lover of the sport, Wesley O. got busy and started the ball rolling, and he hopes to keep the ball rolling in Naptown until he is able to present six or more clubs to the Indianapolis public every season. This is a tough assignment... But knowing the fella like we do, we believe he'll be able to get the job done with a little more cooperation from baseball lovers in this section of the Hoosier state.

WE NEED NOT remind you that Mr. (I promote Negro Baseball) Jackson started out as a very young man, during the years he wrote sports news for this newspaper... And has been methodically trained by some of the best front office and team managers in the country... This wealth of experience was enhanced by association with such men as Lee Scott, publicity director of the Brooklyn Dodgers; Ed Gottlieb of the Philadelphia Stars and the Spas basketball team; Cuni Posey of the Homestead Grays; Gus Greenlee, originator of the famed East-West game and owner of the Pittsburgh Crawfords; Bill Veck, the most colorful man in organized baseball and former head of the Cleveland Indians; Abe Saperstein of the Harlem Globetrotters and his assistant Bill Margolis, and Ned Irish, the man who promotes basketball in Madison Square Garden.

Incidentally, Mr. Jackson was one of a committee, which included Frank Forbes, boxing judge in New York, who called on Mr. Irish and demanded the admission of Negro basketball players in Madison Square Garden. The meeting was a success, and Dolly King was the first Negro to play on a professional basketball team in Madison Square Garden.

In other words, Mr. Jackson helped at an early age to make it possible for the Oscar Robertson to play in the palace of sports.

SO FOR 15 years, this dynamic young crusader in sports continues the fight for Negro athletes in all branch of sports. He feels that Negro baseball will be and is a boon to Naptown... That's why he went about to promote the game at Victory Field on July 18, between Oliver Harrison's Indianapolis All Stars and the Kansas City Monarchs.

He wants to give our young baseball players a chance to become another Jackie Robinson, Willie Mays, Hank Aaron or Ernie Banks... He believes this is possible, if you, the public, will give a little cooperation by attending all Negro and white baseball games at Victory Field.

Why not join with Mr. Jackson in his CRUSADE for better ball players for a better world tomorrow in the field of sports? Will be seeing him at VICTORY Field this FRIDAY NITE, JULY 11, for the game between Goose Team's Detroit Clowns and Birmingham Black Barons, it's another Jackson promotion.

THE MAN WHO WANTED TO BE HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION... Joe Jeannette, former ring great, dies... An Associated Negro Press release from Westwicken, N. J., tells of the death of this former great fighter and one-time conqueror of Jack Johnson, who died last week of a heart ailment. The man, who fought Jack Johnson eight times, had been in poor health for some time and was recently voted an annual merit award by Ring 14 of the Veteran Boxers of America.

ALTHOUGH HE was a ring standout, says the story, fighting Johnson, Sam Langford, Harry Wills, and Frenchman Georges Carpentier, among others, Jeannette never achieved his one burning ambition—knocking winning the heavyweight championship.

HE DEFEATED Johnson before the latter won the crown, but once on top, Jack refused to fight him for the title. In his encounters with Johnson, Jeannette won once, lost once, fought two draws and four no-decisions.

JOE REACHED HIS PEAK between 1905 and 1915. A man of incredible stamina, he was floored 27 times but went on to knock out McVey. He knocked out 56 opponents and was knocked out only once—in his 11th and last meeting with Sam Langford. He was 78 at his death. (This info should ring a bell in the belfry of some old-timers).

A HOST OF FRIENDS attended funeral services last Thursday for Millard Graham at the Peoples Funeral Home... Mr. Graham, who died on June 30 in General Hospital, had been in failing health for several years.

Mr. Graham, a brother of the well-known Cy Graham, had lived here for the past 30 years and had worked at King's for 25 of those years. He was well known along the Avenue as "Slim" and was for years a lover of sports, especially baseball. One of his co-workers at King's said, "Slim" was a swell fella, and his death came as a surprise to hundreds of persons in all walks of life who came in contact with him daily. Peace to his ashes. NEWS... Met some very fine people from Kentucky on July 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leverett Bronaugh in Bellefontaine St. Among the guests motoring over from Newport and Covington were Elmer Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Booster) Harper (Virginia) and daughter, Gerry Harper; Cecil Bogan and Johnnie Mae Smith and her father, John Smith. Mr. Smith and Miss Smith are father and sister of Mrs. Bronaugh (Louise). Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Horace McClintock, John Smith, Bob Womack, Mr. and Mrs. John Currie, Bobby Simmons, photographer Charles Caskey and Yours Truly.

It was really a July 4th celebration in bloom, with good things to eat and plenty to drink plus pictures, galore of each guest and a full and complete record of the event. The flashbulbs, but was caught in a sort of 'deadpan' way... if you dig!

ALEX UNDERWOOD, former ice man, is now operating Underwood grocery at 380 W. 28th. Drop in and see the fella a lift in a grocery-sort-of-way... Herman Glover and a Mr. Gibson (no relation) were in the office last Wednesday... But the fella had to hurry, with a promise to be back real soon... Singer Charles Peoples came in to tell us that he has some new songs to record... The Bohemian club is in the process of reorganization... The Club was once rated tops in the city. Next meeting scheduled for Monday, July 14, at 518 W. North, with a party sponsored by LeRoy Ricketts and Henry Lee. All former members and interested persons urged to attend.

IN THE MAIL BAG... Received a nice scribble from Edward Hansford Jr., now living in St. Paul, Minn... The fella writes that his pretty daughters are getting longer and longer and noisier and noisier, but he loves them just the same. He hopes to bring them to Naptown sometime soon. Also sends regards to the gang and Howard Filmore... Also received a card from Lillian, former Oriental Cafe waitress, who is vacationing in sunny California... The young lady makes the trip yearly... Play-girl Hortense Bowman scribbles from Acapulco, Mexico, where her party is spending a week away from Mexico City, their home base. The international plane traveler says it's very hot in Acapulco, but the scenery is beautiful. The party should be winging their way back to the States soon.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mayor Bayt and City Controller Boswell for approving a proposed $189 salary increase for our 750 policemen. Their salaries will remain around $90 to $100 a week less tax deductions, of course. It's now up to City Council.

THIS WEEK IN RECORDS

By ALBERT ANDERSON For ANP

Dear Vacationer: Before you pack your luggage and head for that mountain retreat or far-away pleasure spot, be sure to stock a good supply of your choice records. You may not be going on a musical sojourn, but when you return at day's end to your pleasure base from an outing or a busy day in the surf, you will find a fine supply of records quite rewarding and conducive to carefree relaxation.

There are numerous offerings on the market that are well suited for the purpose. However, in an attempt to relieve you of the inconvenience of making the selections, Yours Truly recommends the following vacation entries:

Albums: "Wynton Kelly" (River-side), a swinging LP featuring Brooklyn jazz pianist Wynton Kelly, his quartet and trio; "I Swing For You" (Emarcy), another swinging set featuring alto saxist Lennie Niehaus and his nonet; "Star Dust" (Dot), starring singer-actor Pat Boone; "Exploring the Future" (Dooto), spotlighting the Curtis Counce quintet, and perhaps the most important from a seasonal standpoint: "Chuck Gould Plays A La Fletcher Henderson" (Vik), a memorial tribute to the late, great composer.

Singles: "Come Closer to Me" (Capitol), a Nat "King" Cole offering done in his familiar warm, intimate style; "The Waiting Game" (RCA), a story of lost love, sung by balladeer Harry Belafonte, and "I Can't Forget" (MGM), by the Jacks and Jills, a new harmonizing group.

R & B: "The Cucaracha Rock" (Dooto), sung by rock 'n' roller Joe Houston, is the lone entry recommended under this heading. Even those who don't relish rock 'n' roll may find this record interesting, however. On it, Houston swings away at his own interpretation of the Latin version of "La Cucaracha (The Roach)." The teenage members of the party will especially find this offering delightful.

No. 81 In a Series

GARY'S GIFT (MUSICALLY) TO NAPTOWN... The handsome gent in the middle of this three-way foto is none other than the popular hide-beater Count Fisher, the flashy drummer who hails from the "City of Steel" (Gary)... Aside from being a topflight musician, Fisher is also a humanitarian in the sense that he loves people... And enjoys helping the other fella. We remember the time when he called us and asked for the name of some destitute family he could help at Christmas time. Given the name, Count and the Missus were down to the office pronto with the back of his car loaded with yuletide goodies... And the fella wanted no publicity.

THAT'S THE KIND OF FELLA the Count is... Very modest to the nth degree. His name is seldom in the news... But the fella and his sensational combo continue to wow patrons at a downtown location nite, where they have been whaling for more than two years. The fella is a teetotaler and as a bandleader doesn't stand for his men getting on the "kick." He hates dope and believes that all peddlers should be put where they belong.

WINNER OF TOPFLIGHT HONORS as No. 1 bandleader in the 1956-57 Recorder Dream Band Contest, the Count has the distinction of having opened George's Bar and Orchid Room, where he remained for several months. He also played a longtime engagement at the Ferguson Hotel Lounge, plus engagements at Club 39, and the Blue River Inn in Shelbyville.

OTHER MEMBERS OF THE POPULAR TRIO, are: Erroll Grandy, piano, and "Chuck" Bush, tenor sax. The combo is rated tops around the city, where they are constantly on tap for new engagements. (The Saint)

"The Gershwin Years": Three New Books On George Gershwin Of "Porgy And Bess" Fame

FIRE GUTS "PORGY AND BESS" LOT

HOLLYWOOD (ANP)—Undying and immortal fame of musical compositions by the late George Gershwin will become more deeply a part of the American tradition with the filming of "Porgy and Bess" by the noted producer Sam Goldwyn at the Goldwyn studios. It was learned last week that three new books on Gershwin will be added to the 10 already published, and that publication of the three will be tied in with the 25th anniversary of "Porgy and Bess," Gershwin's greatest work, which debuted in 1933.

Doubleday will bring out "The Gershwin Years" by Edward Jablonski and Lawrence D. Stewart; "The Gershwin Legend" by Merle Armitage will be published by Farrar, Straus and Cudahy; and Ira Gershwin, brother and collaborator of George, is completing his new manuscript, as yet untitled, for Alfred A. Knopf.

The music recording companies, who have published Gershwin's music, such as "Summertime," "Bess You Is My Woman Now," "I've Got Plenty of Nothin'," "It Ain't Necessarily So" and others, and artists in all fields of entertainment will participate in various Gershwin tributes via television, radio, the concert hall and other media of communication.

TEDDY BARNES WITH THE BE-BOPPERS GROUP... The sensational Be-Boppers are fortunate in having added Teddy Barnes, formerly of the Spaniels, to their already popular singing and dancing group.

Barnes will be the new lead and baritone for these red hot youngsters, who are currently burning up the stages in this section of the country.

Wedding rings are placed on the third finger of the left hand because of an old Egyptian belief that a nerve ran directly from that finger to the heart.

"Horror of Dracula" at Walker Sun. Plus "The Thing That Couldn't Die"

One of the world's classic monsters, the unforgettable human vampire of Bram Stoker's famous novel, comes to the screen in a completely new color film when Hammer Film Productions, Ltd. presents "Horror of Dracula," opening Sunday at the Walker theater.

The picture stars Peter Cushing, Michael Gough and Melissa Stribling with Christopher Lee as Dracula. "Horror of Dracula," which reunites Cushing and Lee after their successful shocker "The Curse of Frankenstein," is released by Universal-International.

Number two pic is "The Thing That Couldn't Die," a horror-adventure pic, which portrays a headless corpse, a corpseless head and the composite body with both segments attached.

"The Thing That Couldn't Die," which stars William Reynolds, Andra Martin, Jeffrey Stone and Carolyn Kearney, is built around the 400-year-old human monster who, though decapitated for the practice of black magic, is able in these modern times to exercise his undiminished diabolical powers.

Minister Retires After 37 Years At Gary Church

GARY—Retiring after 37 years, 25 without receiving a salary, as pastor of the Washington Street Church of God which he founded is Rev. Harry B. Mitchell.

Coming to Gary in 1919 to work in the steel mills, Rev. Mitchell two years later organized the church with a few of his friends as the sole parishioners.

Although he carried on his church work in addition to his job in the mill, the church continuously grew and the congregation built a small church at 2108 Adams.

Rev. Mitchell devoted full time to his church when he retired from the mill in 1946, and in 1956 when First Baptist Church built its new sanctuary, he and his still swelling congregation raised funds and bought and repaired the old building.

ORDAINED IN 1927, Rev. Mitchell graduated from the Anderson College Seminary.

Rev. Mitchell is a member of the Gary Ministerial Fellowship, dean of the Christian educator division of the Interdenominational Sunday School Superintendents and Teachers Council of Gary, member of the National Sunday School Superintendents of the Church of God, an associate member of the division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches of Christ and is affiliated with various boards of his church.

Rev. Mitchell intends to retire only as an active pastor. He plans to continue his Christian work by entering the field of Christian education as pastoral counselor and instructor.

High speed greatly increases stopping distances and requires more concentration on the road ahead. This reduces side vision considerably.

HOLLYWOOD (ANP)—FIRST LETTERS OF THE WEEK—(All seeking movie careers in Hollywood)—One from Benny Shell, Kansas City, Mo., who would like a role in MGM's forthcoming feature "King Solomon's Mines"; another from Miss Mary Belle Lane, Iowa, Kans., also interested in "King Solomon's Mines," both for herself and two other young friends or relatives. An example of how deeply the least news about motion pictures affects the general public, and (ahem) how widely "Gossip Of The Movie Lots" is read as syndicated through

ANP. APPRECIATION LETTER OF THE WEEK: This from Wesley R. Brazier, executive director, and Lee A. Merrilweather, membership coordinator, L. A. Urban League (in excerpt): "Kindly accept our thanks and appreciation for the manner in which you carried the news regarding our annual meeting and awards program." ... Always glad to help such worthwhile effort, and a verbal pat on the shoulder is always inspiring to a scribe.

PREVIEWS OF THE WEEK: "Indiscreet" at Hollywood Paramount, by Warner Brothers, starring Ingrid Bergman, and Cary Grant, supported by Cecil Parker, Phyllis Calvert, David Kossoff and Megs Perkins.

"Bullwhip" — by Allied Artists, at Screen Directors Guild theater, starring Guy Madison and Rhonda Fleming.

"HORROR OF DRACULA" — by Universal International. Stars Peter Cushing, Michael Gough and Melissa Stribling. ... One of the weirdest of the long-famous thrillers, which made Bela Lugosi noted for his exploits among the "dead."

"THE LAW AND JAKE WADE," by MGM, screened at the Academy Award theater, starring Robert Taylor, once an idol of the femmes, and Robert Widmark, who catapulted to fame as a hate monger in Fox's "No Way Out." One of the increasingly popular stories of the great outdoors of earlier days.

Shaving was originally a protective measure, since long beards were easy for opponents in combat to seize.

Robeson Finally Can Go Abroad

NEW YORK—Singer Paul Robeson, unsuccessful since 1950 in his efforts to obtain a passport, has finally been permitted to go abroad.

A recent Supreme Court opinion held that a passport could not be withheld from a person because of his beliefs or associations. Robeson had consistently refused to answer questions on his passport applications about Communist party membership.

While he has been identified with left-wing causes for a number of years, the former Russia resident has denied party membership.

He plans to fly to London this month for stage, television and radio appearances.

inning victory for the Miami Marlins, lifting the team into 6th place in the International League. Another former major leaguer (and a onetime Indianapolis Indian), Luke Easter, is having a grand season with the Buffalo Bisons.

Last week Luke hit a 3-run homer in the 1st inning of a game with Havana, which spelled the margin of victory for the Bisons. It was Easter's 16th round-riper of the summer.

But Althea was not victimized by tennis jitters, despite 6 double-faults, 8 foot-faults and 4 close line calls that went against her in the first set. She was behind 0-2, 2-4 and 3-5 in the first set, and went ahead for the first time at 6-5. Again in the final set she was behind 0-2, before her powerful service and drives smashed to victory.

"Sidelights" business, industry
and labor

By WM. A. CHAMBERS

WILLIAM B. CALWELL is president of Pilgrim Cleaners and Launderers, 22nd and Illinois. The business uses quality service as the reason of its being. Mr. Calwell stated recently. Beginning July 1, the firm initiated two striking new features of laundry service, available to its customers.

Mr. Calwell stated, "On July 1, his year Pilgrim chalked up another first for its customers, 'Pilgrim's Perpetual Shirt Service.' Pilgrim's Personalized Linen Service" also was inaugurated at the same time.

In keeping with this new program or feature of service, "Pilgrim's Perpetual Shirt Service," the customer will be allowed to pick out "brand-new shirts" from Pilgrim's wide selection of nationally-known brands. They will wear them until they are worn out, then they will return them to Pilgrim's. They will be professionally laundered and the shirts for you, for only 33 cents each week, per shirt. When the shirt shows any signs of wear they will replace it for you with a brand new shirt of your choice. In other words, as long as Pilgrim is your laundry, you will have a lifetime supply of shirts at little or no initial cost to you.

Pilgrim's "Personalized Linen Service" also will let you pick brand-new linens from its choice contours, precal, multi-striped sheets and pillowcases. They will put your initials on your sheets and deliver them to your door in their original wrappings. After one year's laundry service these sheets are yours to keep absolutely free. Also when you use "Pilgrim's Personalized Linen Service" you will receive a 12 percent discount on any of your present linens you may wish.

Offering these two innovations in laundry service to its customers, Pilgrim feels that they will never again have to have the large initial expense or worry of purchasing shirts or linens at today's high prices, and its business will continue to grow and prosper in the future, Mr. Calwell observed.

Pilgrim Cleaners and Launderers was founded in 1925 at 14th and Cornell by the late H. G. Calwell. Beginning in a plant of modest size with one Model "T" truck, 14 International trucks were required in 1936 to service the business which had outgrown the Cornell avenue location.

The firm moved to the present location in 1936. A complete dry cleaning and drapery cleaning plant was added in 1948. W. B. Calwell became head of the business upon the death of his father, H. G. Calwell, in 1950. A face-lifting and modernizing plan was completed in 1955, and in 1956 the company had the largest store business in the city.

MRS. EDNA JOHNSON and ALFRED HENRY announced recently the consolidation of the real estate brokerage offices which they head and operate. The office of Mrs. Johnson, formerly located at 3734 Northwestern, has been moved to the office of her father, Henry Realty firm, 135 W. 28th. Both Mr. Henry and Mrs. Johnson are highly enthused over their cooperative venture and the possibilities of offering clients and prospective clients more and better service.

The two organizations of 13 salesmen and brokers will afford prospective buyers a larger selection of properties from which to choose and sellers more agents working for them to effect quicker sales, the heads of the new firm noted.

Members of the combined staff of salesmen or brokers include Mr. Henry, Charles James, Booker Hollis, Ida Gould, Joseph Isom, Vernon E. Sweat, Mrs. Johnson, Mildred Durante, Edna M. Towns, James H. McKenzie, Edna Prevost, Lenora Franklin, Mac Simmons and Anita Jarrett, secretary.

TIMOTHY C. MILLS, co-owner of Launder-Rite Self Service Laundry, 523 Indiana, was recently elected president of the Indiana Quick Service Laundry Association. He has served previously in the office of secretary, vice-president and chairman of the board of directors. He has been in the business since 1947. He is a native of the city and a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

The organization is affiliated with the American Institute of Laundering and represents the automatic laundry business in the state. It promotes quality services and progress of its membership in the field of business.

Other officers are Walter S. Barnett, Valparaiso, vice-president; Alexander Buscinski, South Bend, secretary-treasurer, and Armin Richards, Lafayette, chairman of the board of directors.

Bobbs-Merrill Company
Enhances City's Fame

By WM. A. CHAMBERS

"The Arabs had a word (or words) for it."

Telling of the charity, wisdom, adventure and humanitarianism of men encountered in his travels, a story-teller of dim antiquity, according to legend, was told by the greatest of "the good Jinn" to "go on and live forever."

Book-lovers over our land, or many places over the world, thus might imagine that "the grandfather" of The Bobbs-Merrill Company, Inc., through powers of the printed page, should go on living forever.

The origin or continuous existence of the company predates the completion of the Indiana Statehouse by about 50 years. The internationally-known book publishing house is now in its 128th year of continuous existence. The Statehouse was completed in 1888, about a year after the laying of the cornerstone of the world-famous Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument on the city square.

THE "GRANDFATHER" of the present publishing house, Samuel Merrill, arrived in this city by stagecoach from Corydon in 1824. He carried under his arm the books that then made up the State Library. The state capital was in the process of moving here from Corydon, and he was moving with it.

Mr. Merrill and E. H. Hood, a friend of literary persuasion, opened a book and stationery store in Temperance Hall in 1838. Later Mr. Merrill bought out his partner's interest. Shortly before the Civil War he left the business to his son, Samuel Merrill II, and a son-in-law, Charles W. Moores. On returning from the war the young Merrill guided the store through many changes.

The firm undertook its first publishing venture in 1855. The first book published under the imprint of the company was "Volume 5, Indiana Supreme Court Reports."

In 1882 the business emerged as Merrill, Meigs and Co. In 1885 a merger with Bowman and Stewart and Co. resulted in the Bowman-Merrill Co. In 1895, the firm of the Bobbs-Merrill Company emerged. Finally in 1948 the present name of The Bobbs-Merrill Company, Inc. was adopted.

The internationally-known book publishing company today publishes statutes and codes of several states of the Union, as well as "Federal Code" and a complete line of legal texts, some of them multivolume sets covering practically every field of law.

The law department is headed by Leland C. Morgan and it holds an enviable reputation.

SOME OF THE OUTSTANDING law educators of the country have been and are now authors of the complete line of law school case and text books published by the company. The company has the distinction of having been selected in 1956 by the American Bar Association to publish "The Lawyer's Treasury," an anthology of the 46 best articles appearing in its official organ during the last 40 years.

One of the monumental tasks of the law book department was a complete recodification of the laws of the State of Tennessee dating back to 1790. The task started by the law editorial staff in 1953 extended through 1955.

The Tennessee Legislature in 1957 passed a resolution praising the law editorial staff of the company for its excellent performance of its contract.

The company has also recom-piled, in eight volumes, the general laws of the State of Rhode Island, followed by many, many letters of commendation.

The Bobbs-Merrill Company con-Today, like a Mozart concerto. The Bobbs-Merrill Company consists of three sections — its text-book, law book and trade book departments. The educational department is under the direction of Lowe Berger, president of the company. Textbooks published by the educational department have been adopted and still are used in many states.

However, in the minds of the general public the company's fame stems from activity of its trade book department, headed by Ross G. Baker. Editors of this department screen some 3,500 to 4,000 manuscripts annually in order to come up with as many as 60 or 70 good titles.

TRADE DEPARTMENT editors and employees divide their reading chores between the Indianapolis office, 730 N. Meridian, and a New York office. The New York office draws on the metropolitan literary market, and headquarters here are valued for access to regional writers.

It was in Kokomo that William C. Bobbs, one of the men active in management of the newly-merged Bowman-Merrill Co., ran across a thin paper-bound volume of poetry called "The Ole Swamin' Hole and Leven More Poems." It had been written by a self-styled "rhyming man" who signed his efforts Benj. F. Johnson of Boone.

The author of the brief verses, of course, was James Whitcomb Riley. Mr. Bobbs reached an agreement to publish and distribute the book. Thus was formed an alliance between the "Hoosier Poet" and "the Hoosier House" which lasted until Mr. Riley's death. His homey verses filled more than 40 volumes published by Bowman-Merrill Company and its successors.

The company has published the literary works of numerous Hoosier writers and others of wide renown. But the literary bomb-shell among all of these turned out to be a novel written by a Shelbyville lawyer named Charles Major.

His "When Knighthood Was in Flower" boomed all across the country. Its sale reached the phenomenal figure of a million copies, shocked the conservative Eastern publishers and touched off a novel-writing era never before witnessed over the nation.

IT PUT INDIANA on the publishing map.

Beginning in 1900, or the year after, the company was off on a successful publishing spree, putting 40 of its books on the nation's best-selling rosters. The roster of authors reads like a literary "Who's Who."

The company publishes, or once published, Maurice Thompson, Meredith Nicholson, Charles Fredrick Goss, Mary Roberts Rinehart, John Erskine, Richard Halliburton, L. Frank Baum ("Wizard of Oz"), Bruce Barton, Ayn Rand, Henry Steele Commager, Ingalls Fletcher, Alice Tisdale Hobart and others.

The most dramatic of the best-sellers of the company is a cook-book with more than three million sales since 1932, and still selling 100,000 copies a year here and abroad. The book is by Irma S. Rembauer, "The Joy of Cooking." Officers of the company are D. Laurence Chambers, chairman of the board; Lowe Berger, president; Ross G. Baker, vice-president; Lee C. Gobin, treasurer, and Leland C. Morgan, secretary.

COL. ROBERT L. MOREHEAD with some 64 years of seniority as an employee and officer holds the position of honorary secretary and treasurer. Mr. Chambers has been with the company 55 years. Mr. Berger, a comparative youngster, has been with the firm 30 years.

A venerable corporation, the company carries upon its stationery the words, "established in 1838." The Hoosier House, rich in traditions, faces the future with optimism and the aggressiveness of youth.

Or, who shall say nay, perhaps, "the Arabs had words for it," involving even the remote after-while.
